The annual meeting of the District Convention, was held in the Presbyterian Hell at Bridgewater, June 9th to 11th. Mrs Cuthbert acted as organist. Each meeting was opened with devotional exercises, and a half hour was spent every day at noon in singing and prayer. Mrs Flowers was elected Recording Secretary. Reports from eight Unions show ad an increase of interest in nearly all departments of work undertaken and additions to the membership, while at Victaux a new Union had heave the state of the state of the strength of the union of the strength of the strength of the union of the union of the strength of the union of the union of the strength of the union of the unio sing, and a half hours we spent of the control of t
