Grand Trunk Makes New Offer Over Switch Matter.

Board of Works Will Discuss Herkimer Street Case This Evening.

By next spring a Greek with a peanut push cart will be as hard to find on the streets as a needle in a haystack.

Dr. Roberts, Medical Health Officer, said this morning that, although there were twenty-four typhoid cases in the hospitals, he was not at all alarmed.

As it is in the interest of public health that all cases of typhoid fever occurring within the municipality of Hamilton should be promptly reported at this office, in order that the origin of such cases may be inquired into, kindly report any cases coming under your notice on the ordinary forms provided for that purpose.

A decidedly foolish story in a local paper yesterday, to the effect that Ald. Farrar would be a candidate for Mayorality honors, opposing Mayor Stewart for his second term, and that he had waited on the Liberals with a deputation to see if they would support him, was branded as a fake by Ald. Farrar.

It looks as if the trouble between the Grand Trunk Railway over the switch at Ferguson avenue crossing, Barton street, might be patched up.

Klein & Binkley have offered to pay the city $1,200 a year rental for 35 and 37 James street north, and to spend $3,500 on improvements, including a new store front.

City Engineer Barrow, who went over the new sewer sewer yesterday, says the septics tanks are completed, with the exception of one wall and seven hundred feet of the big sewer laid.

At the request of the Trades and Labor Council, which is not ready yet to proceed, the Board of Works and Fuel Committee will not deal with the Henry case to-night.

The total value of building permits issued for the first eight months of this year was $2,412,915, as compared with $1,281,535 for the same period last year, an increase of $1,131,380.

Mayor Stewart says he will be very much disappointed if the assessment increase in Hamilton this year does not reach the $3,000,000 mark, which would give an extra revenue of $60,000.

The new patrol station, which has been in course of erection for nearly two years, will be opened the latter part of this week.

The jail is getting too small to accommodate the number of male prisoners there. About $400 will be spent making alterations and fixing up half of that part now occupied by women prisoners for the men.

The opening of the new patrol station and the reopening of the lately repaired police court will take place the latter part of the week.

With the mercury at the pinnacle it is difficult even for a haughty woman to look icy.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

Mr. W. H. Eaglesham will sail for Europe on Thursday.

Miss Margaret Nolan, Copetown, has left to visit her brother in Freepart, Ill.

—Get your new hat at Waugh's, post-office opposite, if you want to be up to date. Waugh's is a good place to get the newest in men's furnishings. The range of colored shirts shown by this house is one of the best; prices, fifty cents to one fifty.

Fire caused by the explosion of a coal oil stove at the home of Mrs. A. Robinson, 375 John street north, at 11:30 this morning did about $400 or $500 damage to the house and contents. No person was burned and the fire was quickly extinguished, although it had a big start when the firemen arrived.

—The iron that was missed from Mack-Kay's wharf and the iron which sunk Mr. Graham's stolen rowboat at the James street slip, was discovered to-day it was untrue that he had any intentions of being a Mayorality candidate; that he had ever waited upon anybody with that object in view, or that he even knew the name of a member of the Liberal or Labor Executive. He said he had spoken casually to Ald. Lewis, Peregrine and McLaren, suggesting to them that they oppose Mayor Stewart next year.

—Mrs. Margaret Farrell, wife of Mr. Thomas Farrell, for many years manager of the Hendrie Cartage Co., St. Catharines, passed away at her home, 17 Park Place, there, very suddenly, on Saturday afternoon. The deceased lady had been under the doctor's care for a few days, but was about her home. Half an hour before her death she was calling at a neighbor's home.
