Saw Three Presidents Murdered

Here is the amazing, the very experience of Robert T. Lincoln, son of President Lincoln, and now in his eightieth year. He related it recently to a friend and, so far as I know, it has never before been published: Young Lincoln was in the army and stationed at Virginia when he received an order to report at Washington. He got into the theatre just in time to see his father receive his fatal wound.

Young Lincoln was Secretary of War under Garfield. He was asked by the President to meet him at the station and he reached there just as Garfield was assassinated.

Mr. Lincoln received an invitation to attend the formal opening of the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, and just in time to see President Mc-Kinley shot by Cozigers.

A friend happened to be with Mr.
 Lincoln when he received an invitation to attend a presidential function at Washington a few years ago. He then remarked something to the effect that, "if they only knew, they wouldn't want me there." And he related his experience as here revealed.

JAMES COMPLAINS
 (New York World)
 We've got a baby at our house, He come the other day, He's toothless but grandpa an'
 His hair's all wore away.
 My mother calls him Sweetie Lamb, An' other foolish names.
 Since that kid come, 'bout all a hear is: "Don't wake baby, James!"

One time I got a little pup As' brung it home with me.
 'Twas just a common cur, but still—'Twas cute as it could be.
 My mother an' my sisters kicked,
 They sent the pup away.
 They said it was a nuisance, yet They let the that baby stay.

The pup could walk an' jump an' bark 'Twas mighty quick to learn.
 Our baby hasn't got no sense,
 The kid ain't worth a dern.
 Now, Mom an' all the other folks Kin' praise the baby up.
 But, at the same, 'twould you an' me I'd rather have the pup.

CHRISTMAS TREE DANGERS Provincial Fire Marshal M. Bellan, of New Brunswick, is sending broadcast over the province 5,000 posters of striking appearance carrying a warning against the danger of fire about Christmas trees and suggesting the use of electric lights and non-inflammable decorations for the tree.
 The additional suggestion as to throwing the tree out immediately after the holiday is also made. At the bottom of the poster is the stater-ment that, exclusive of forest fires, the fire waste in New Brunswick from January 1 to Sep-30, 1922, was $2,202,816.

U. N. B. SENATE TO DECIDE MERGER

You will have to wait until the special meeting of the Senate early in January, then you will probably find out what we all think about it," was the reply of Dr. C. C. Jones, chancellor of the U. N. B. when asked upon his return from the Halifax conference to give his opinion of the proposed federation of the universities of the Maritime Provinces.

Chancellor Jones said that in the meantime he did not feel at liberty to give his views on the subject. He said he would make his report on the matter and submit the formal report adopted at the conference at Halifax.

"What has been accomplished so far has been to adopt a proposed scheme for submission to the governing bodies of the various institutions which have been asked to enter the federation," said Dr. Jones. "These bodies after considering the proposals are expected to make replies, which will probably be in the form of whether they are prepared to enter the federation under the proposed scheme or not."

Chancellor Jones said that he expected the special meeting of the senate of the U. N. B. would be during the first or second week in Jan.

Appeals To Farmers Of United States

Georges Clemenceau, speaking as a "dirt farmer of France" to the farmers of the United States urged them to support the re-entry of the United States into European affairs, not only as a conscientious duty, but as a good business stroke.
 "Isolation," he exclaimed, "what does isolation mean for you? You know what it meant with your last wheat crop—more wheat than America could eat, with low prices."

YOUR ENEMY—THE BOSS

A recent bulletin of the Canadian National Safety League asks the following question: Do you ever have the notion that the Boss is your enemy; that he has it in for you, and lies awake nights thinking up ways of being disagreeable?
 If you have that notion, it may be true—about one time out of a thousand. The other 999 times the Boss is about the best friend you have, if you give him a chance.

The average foreman or superintendent is really a pretty good sort of fellow—not far different from the average coal digger or steel worker.
 He has a harder job than the workman, because he has the responsibility of control and he is blamed not only for his own mistakes but for those of the men he directs. He must be a genuine leader of men—a leader, not a driver. He must be qualified to teach the job to the men under him, to judge their capacity, and to inspire them to follow his example in efficiency and loyalty. A man who has these qualifications is not likely to be small-souled enough to carry a grudge against a workman.

Instead of looking upon the Boss as an enemy, suppose you try treating him as a friend, and see if he is not really interested in your welfare and success.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children.
 Food are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
