Many a man is nerved to long endurance, to the patient bearing of heavy burdens and to daily sufferance of vexatious circumstances, by the tonic effects of an earthly love. The same is true of many women, probably of more women than men. Love for some one whom we can actually see, fortified by the direct assurances that the love is rectprocated, will make us indifferent to trouble, or at least brave in meeting it. And yet such love at its best is cold indeed, compared with the ineffable pas-sion wherewith God loves his creatures; and the offer of salvation through Christ is a continual reiteration and assurance against all the trying circumstances and all druggists, 50c. and $1.00 incidents of life.

Wanted to Borrow Horseshoes
In the pioneer days of New Hampshire articles of use were rare.

In 1868 there were in the town of Sanbornton but three horses, three great-coats, and two men each owned a pair of boots.

It is said that the first person who had shoes upon his horse gave great offence to a neighbor, who was about to go on a journey, by refusing to lend his horse-shoes to be used on the occasion.
