Anxious Time.

DRIFTING IN DISABLED MOTOR

Three fishermen of the Battery, who were on the fishing grounds yester-day, spent an anxious time when their motor boat broke down. A strong breeze was blowing, and the men being sighted at dusk from Torbay, the matter was reported to the police. Assistance was being sent, when a second report was made to the police that the men had succeeded in getting their motor repaired, and were making towards land.

The beautiful bungalow on the Porugal Cove Road, owned by Mr. Geo. R. Parsons, was completely destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. Not an article of furniture was saved and the damage is in excess of $9000. Insurance is carried to the extent of $5000 so that there is a loss of $4000. The fire is believed to have been caused by clothes which were drying behind stove. It was first discovered by Mrs. Parsons, who, returning from short visit to a neighbour, found the kitchen in flames. She quickly informed the neighbourhood, but it was impossible to save anything from the fighters were confined to preventing the blaze from spreading to neighbouring bungalow of Mr. W. Completing Cab Stand.

A USELESS EXPENDITURE.

A number of men are engaged at the completion of the cab stand east of the Court House which was started by the Government last spring as a form of relief work. The place is so small that it is of practically no use, and the cost of making it is out of all proportion to its utility. When blasting, which was necessary to make the excavation, was completed, it was found that a large water main was in the way. The men have now to trench found that a large water main was in the way. The men have now to trench some distance up the hill and further blasting will be necessary before the pipe is laid at the level necessary to get it out of the way. Besides all this expense a watchman has been em-ployed on the site ever since the work
