ST. JOHN'S FOOTBALL LEAGUE.
The annual meeting of the Newfoundland Football League was held last night in the office of the President, Mr. J. P. Crotty. The meeting was presided over by the Vice-President, Mr. E. H. Hunt. The reports for the past year were submitted and accepted unanimously. The season of 1923 was a very successful one for the League, a large amount of business being left on hand. Mr. J. P. Crotty was moved to the chair and conducted the election of officers, which resulted as follows: President—W. J. Higgins.

Vice-President—C. E. Hunt.
Treasurer—F. C. Brian.
Secretary—B. B. Hargis.
Judges—Messrs. J. P. Crotty and J. Carmichael.

Following the installation of officers, Mr. Hunt took the chair, a communication from the owners of St. George's Field was read, giving the League six months notice to vacate, they requiring the property for other purposes. A select committee was appointed to find another field, and were asked to report back at an early date. A communication was also received from the Junior League, who were granted the use of the grounds on Wednesday and Saturday nights of each week and also any other available night. The opening football match for the season takes place on Sunday. The fixtures were drawn as follows:

Salts vs. B. I. S.
Fieldians vs. Guards
Star vs. C. E. I.
C. L. B. vs. Cadets

Mr. Father Nongle, President of the N.Y.A., was granted the use of the grounds for July 1st week, in order to conduct various sports in honor of St. John's.

A further meeting of the League will be held next week when arrangements will be made for the securing of a new field.
