FINE, WARM WEATHER.

Toronto, Ont., July 10-11 p.m.—An important area of high pressure covers the Southern and Atlantic States, there are depressions over the Northwest Territories and Gulf of St. Lawrence; the former of which is likely to cause thunder storms in the lake region Sunday night, while the other will move eastward across the gulf. The weather today has been fine and very warm everywhere except in Ontario, where the temperature has been more moderate and the weather showery.

Minimum and maximum temperatures: Calgary, 54-82; Prince Albert, 58-84; Qu'Appelle, 62-84; Winnipeg, 58-84; Parry Sound, 60-83; Toronto, 62-78; Ottawa, 64-80; Montreal, 68-90; Chatham, 60-86; Halifax, 64-86.

PROBABILITIES.

Toronto, July 11—A.m. Probabilities for the lower lakes region: Moderate to fresh westerly and southerly winds; fine; very warm.

LOCAL TEMPERATURES.

The highest and lowest readings of the thermometer at the observatory yesterday were: Highest, 76 above; lowest, 60 above.

WESTERN FAIR BOARD.

A meeting of the Western Fair Board was held last night for the purpose of consummating the letting of the contract for the new band stand. The $36,000 debentures issued by the city and handed over to the Fair board have been found inadequate, and the board authorized the paying over of a sufficient sum of money to the city treasury to cover all the contracts that have been let. Those present at the meeting were: W. A. Farwell, Cooper, Pritchard, Mayor Little, Geo. Taylor, Capt. A. W. Porte, W. M. Spencer, James H. Brown, Superintendent Hook and Secretary Browne.

Summer Comes

With the flowers and sunshine. Birds pour out their melody and the chirp of the grasshopper will soon tempt the fisherman to stretch forth his hands and grasp the shadow of his flight. The playful mosquito will do her utmost to soothe weary pleasure seekers into the realms of slumber, and the stinging, stinging, stinging will remove every semblance of comfort from the couch of the sleeper, and the brightest sunshine cannot dissipate. London and Environs

—Miss Lizzie Gillies is the guest of Mrs. D. H. Gillies, London.

—W. H. Fitzsimmons, liverman, lost a fine mare recently by death.

—Rev. R. Hobbs, city, is announced to speak at 12th of July demonstration at Tilsonburg on Monday.

—The annual picnic of St. Andrew's Church and Sunday schools will be held on Thursday, July 15, to Port Stanley.

—The Sabbath schools of Colborne Street, Askin Street and Centennial Methodist Churches will picnic at Port Stanley next week.

—Mr. Robert Middleton, formerly a well-known London printer, now one of the intrepid experts of the Toledo Blade, is visiting relatives and friends in the city.

—Thos. Ralph, of con. 7, London township, has been summoned to appear before the present term of the court, where he claims that Ralph owes him 75 cents.

—The members of the Canadian Order of Foresters are arranging to hold the anniversary church service in Sherwood Hall, Richmond street, on Sunday, July 19.

—Mrs. Cragden's host of friends will be glad to learn that she has almost recovered from her lengthy illness, and has already resumed her usual visits among the friends.

—Mr. Wm. Porte, who has held the position of postmaster at Lucan for the past 23 years, has resigned, and his son, Fred. W. Porte, has taken his place. The retiring chief took charge of the office in June, 1888.

—At a recent examination at Wolseley Barracks, Lieut. Arthur B. Magee, of the Seventh Fusiliers, obtained a second-class certificate, which qualified him for the rank of captain. Mr. Magee is a son of Crown Attorney Magee.

—John Taylor has laid an information with Squire Lacey against Thos. Bradshaw, hotel-keeper, for Thos. Taylor charges with malicious damage to property. The damage was inflicted on Thos. Bradshaw's property, which Bradshaw is alleged to have cut.

—At a meeting of the creditors of the Erie Iron Works, St. Thomas, yesterday, in this city, it was decided to wind up the business. Mr. B. Armstrong was confirmed as assignee, and M. A. Gilbert and J. B. Davidson, of Port Bruce, were named as liquidators of this city were appointed inspectors.

—Collector Campbell, of London West has met with considerable difficulty in collecting statute law taxes, and has summoned Ed. Gibson, Wm. Gibson, and George, Michael, McWhinney, and George, Michael, McWhinney, to appear before Squire Lacey on Monday. The papers were served yesterday by Detective W. C. Claxton.

—The choir boys of St. John's Church, London, arrived in town by train yesterday morning, and drove to Port Bruce, where they intend spending a couple of weeks under canvas. They are in charge of the choir master, who, we believe, will have his hands full, as the boys are evidently out for fun—Aylmer Express.

—Dr. James, who will give lectures to German and French at the summer school here, has been at the college. He will begin his course of lectures Monday morning. The professor is an honor graduate of Toronto University, and a Ph.D. of Leipzig, Germany. He comes to the city highly recommended.

—Building operations have been very active this year in the North End, and in no spot has there been so much of it concentrated as on the site of the old Boys' College, above the cricket grounds. It was a barren moor when Mr. George Oliver purchased it last year, but he has worked marvels this season. Three large handsome single houses and a double house have been erected, and three new ones have been started. He has opened a new street, called Helmholtz street, and the center of the site has given an impetus to the sale of lots which has been effected through Mr. Sangster's agency.

—Mrs. Carrie Crackel, of Port Huron, has been arrested in that city on the charge of bigamy. The defendant was married at London, Ont., in 1890, a railroad man, on Dec. 31 last, and married two years later. She was afterwards married to George Crackel, a railroad man, on Dec. 31 last, and since they have been living near the tunnel depot. It is alleged that her first husband was living at the time of her second marriage, but the woman claims she had information stating her first husband was dead. Crackel had secured a divorce from his first wife shortly before her marriage. The warrant for the woman's arrest was sworn out by her second husband's name, Judge Wagner and her examination set for July 17. She was released on her own recognizances. Her maiden name was Carrie Webb.

—The energetic choir of St. James' Presbyterian Church have purchased a new and splendid organ. It is a No. 1 Williams, single manual, pipe instrument, with a white antique oak case. The work of building has been pushed forward day and night, and the new instrument will be used for the first time on Sunday, but will not be completely finished. On the Sunday following a special musical service will be rendered to celebrate the opening. The organ which the new one replaced was built by the Anderson Bros. in this city, in 1878, and won first prize at the exhibition for its beauty of tone and finish. It was built by W. W. Anderson, and has been known maker of instruments, and has done the congregation of St. James' excellent service. The old one was a double manual, and the new one a single manual, but is even more powerful than the double manual of the long ago. It is being built by Mr. George Stern, son of W. D. Benson, who erected the old one just 20 years ago.

BIG BAND TOURNAMENT.

The city of Hamilton has decided to give a grand band tournament on Aug. 2 and 4, under the auspices of the Thirtieth Regiment Band. A $1,500 has been placed to the credit of Mr. Geo. E. Tuckett, mayor of Hamilton, together with valuable instruction to be awarded to the band.

—First-class bands a purse of $700 is offered; second-class bands, $650; five and four bands, $40; bugle bands, $150. The entries close July 15, and the individual competition of solos, etc., a large number of valuable prizes are offered, and the contest is expected to be the most successful of its kind yet held.

THE HOSPITAL TRUST.

R. Lewis (chairman), C. F. Compilin, Jas. Gilmore, M.P., Mayor Little, and Superintendent J. D. Baile, held a meeting of the Hospital Trust at the City Hospital yesterday. The trustees examined the reports of admissions for the month of June, and there were 50 patients under treatment. Miss Tye reported that Miss Nellie Milne, Glasgow, and Cassie Bell, Alisa Craig, London, were recently placed in the hospital as nurses; also a donation of flowers from Mrs. C. S. Hyman.

—The trustees were directed to ask for prices for next year's supply of coal, and present them at the next meeting of the board.

—Accounts to the amount of $1,047.75 were passed and ordered to be paid. Collected in June, $333.90. Eighteen new beds were recently placed in the long ward. They are enameled white and greatly improve the appearance of the ward. The trustees were well pleased with them.

They Have Fallen In Their Go's.

The following is an advertisement which we think worthy of notice, and we give it as it appeared in the last issue of the Canadian Grocer: "You are invited to send us back every pound of Salada Ceylon Tea you have in stock if it is not giving you better satisfaction than any tea you have ever had. We challenge you to any other house pushing any kind of tea, loose or packet, to insert a similar advertisement in the Canadian Grocer. P. L. Larin & Co., 25 Front street east, Toronto."

Ideal Summer Resort.

Kill two birds with one stone. Spend a pleasant summer holiday at Oakville and get rid of the liquor or morphine habit once and for all at the same time. It will cost you a little more than if you go to an ordinary summer resort, but probably not half as much as you would spend on liquor in half the time. "Lakehurst," with its fine house, shady grounds, water front and excellent board, is preferable to most hotels, and you can leave your liquor curse behind you forever when your holiday is over. For particulars address Manager, Lakehurst Institute, Oakville, Ont.

Sale Satisfaction.
