Sam Hughes, Sir Wilfrid Laurier stated that the attention of the government has been called to the announcement in the public press that the government intends introducing a bill fixing May 24 as the day of official observance of the King's birthday, but no decision has yet been reached upon the matter. Hon. Sydney Fisher, replying to Mr. Taylor, said the cost of taking the census of 1881 was $456,904 19; that of 1891 cost $570,115 54. The census of 1901 has cost $986,296 98 to date, and it was estimated would cost about $183,703 02 more to complete it, making a total of $1,170,000, as the cost of the census of 1901. In reply to Mr. Bennett, Mr. Fisher also stated that the cost of taking the census in East Simcoe was $2, 304 48 in 1891, and $4,465 79 in 1901. In North Simcoe the cost was $1,728 62 in 1891 and $2,890 45 in 1901. Hon. Mr. Fitzpatrick, in reply to Mr. Monk, said that of 494 cases argued in the supreme court between the first of April, 1897, and first of April, 1902, six judges of the court heard the arguments in 16 cases. IN THE SENATE.

The following bills were passed: Respecting the Canada Southern Railway Company; respecting the Canada and Michigan Bridge and Tunnel Company; to incorporate the Battleford and Lake Lenore Railway Company; to incorporate the Velvet Mine Railway Company.
