GAVE WARNING

Should Not Be Lax in Their large gathering of friends. The Rev. Good Deeds-Rev. G. B. Sage's Sermon.

"If any man's work shall be burned, e shall suffer loss; but he himself shall be saved, yet so as by fire."-I. Corinthians iii., 15. The meaning and significance of the above difficult text were clearly pointed out by Rev. G. B. Sage, in his sermon n St. George's Episcopal Church, West ondon, last evening. He showed that he text referred to Christians only. "Believers are so happy at being saved by Christ's atoning blood," said Mr. Sage, "that they are apt to forget his works. And the apostle tells us i our text that some men's works shall not endure, but they themselves shall be saved. Mr. Sage explained that in the chaper from which his text was taken the postle was using the houses of his day as an illustration. He pictured man building a house for his own use and making it out of wood, hay and stubble, the common materials of the day, and of discovering some night that was on fire. The man would escape himself "out of the midst of the fire, or, as it is expressed by the text, "so as by fire." but his house and goods would be burned. When Paul told the Christians to build their spiritual houses out of "gold, silver and precious stones" he was probably thinking of the temple which was built by man fo

God and of materials which would enpreacher warned Christians The being lax in their good deeds lest in the next world, although saved through all eternity, they would not have anything to show as the result of
