Totals......35 1 3 7 27

McClary's threw the second game

A little Sunlight Soap will clean she laughs. cut glass and other articles until stepping to the edge of the stream they shine and sparkle. Sunlight and Paula stands a little way back wash other things than

"Doesn't matter in the slightest," says Suddenly he sees the line jerk, there "But this is just the morning for fishing," says Bob, regretfully, "just up beside her. the morning."

Then a brilliant idea strikes him. "Here, Paula," he says, cheerfully, "A beauty!" he syou go with Sir Herrick, and show of color in his face. him that place just below the mill

"Oh-I couldn't trouble Miss Paula," "On—I couldn't trouble Miss Paula," phatically. "Why should I? Do you think I do 't know that you can land think I do 't k Bob laughs. "Oh, it's no trouble. She can throw a

'Yes," Paula murmurs in compul-"Let her go with you, says Bob, all forgetful of the character he had given the bank. his guest, "she'll put you on the proper spots. Mind Paula, the end of the mill pool, just in the shallows!" "But-" says Sir Herrick, remonstrating, "Miss Paula may not care-" Bob cuts in with a short laugh.

There's nothing she'd like better, Sir Herrick. Get your hat on, Paula-" tion, dutifully obeys. After all, what else can she do, unless she should be downright mulish? does as he is told.

CHAPTER VI. for a young lady to accompany a young gentleman, alone, after the first few moments of introduction, especially if she has also been guily of the indiscretion of waltzing with him on a what can Paula do? Bob, who knows about as much of the convenances, and etiquette generally, as a bull knows of crochet-work and who looks upon Paula as little better than a child-who is wont indeed on occasions to call her "the kid"-has is shocking. Sir Herrick could help her if he likes, and he does mutter something about "troubling Miss Estcourt, and taking up her time," but Bob cuts him short with a laugh.

"Oh, Paula," he says with all a brother's indifference, "it's not trouble to her—she'll enjoy it; her time's her own. You can take my rod, if you like, he says to her, graciously, and adds for Sir Herrick's information, "she throws a very decent fly."

Paula gets her hat and Bob's lightest rod, and when she comes down finds Sir Herrick standing under the veranda, with his rod in hand. He greets her with the smile that seems almost familiar to her now. "The fates are gracious to me," he says. "Are you really coming, Miss Paula? Don't, if you'd rather not. I'll accept any excuse, I assure you."
"I haven't got one ready," says

Paula, "Besides, Bob's word is law—when my sister Alice is not about. I think I'd better go."
"I breathe again," he says, "I thought you would back out of it." 'This way," says Paula, with a lays hands on her rod. "I'll carry that," he says, gently; and Paula relinquishes it. is rather difficult to maintain.

'And you go in for fly-fishing?" Paula colors as if he had accused h "I learnt it of Bob," she says, apo

"A rattling good thing to learn," says. "I only knew one woman would do it; and I often wondered w it didn't come into fashion with ladie just the sport they could use to perfetion. Wants a light hand and a ke eye, and those are just what wom have. What a lovely morning! Ah, th is beautiful!"

And he stops short as they reach river, and looks, round. It is a perfect little picture; t bright, blue sky above, just fleck here and there with white, flee clouds, the trees clad in their summ greenery, the silver stream bubbli smooth stones and bowlde "Beautiful!" he says, drawing a lo breath, "Jove, how happy you mu it to paper or canvas.

"That's the fly," she says, looking up suddenly, and very narrowly escapng his direct gaze. "I'll put one on each line," he says quickly, for her glorious eyes, in their intent look, startle him. "There now you shall have the first throw."

"No," says Paula, firmly; "you shall; you are the visitor, you know," and He is too well-bred to argue, and "I won't throw another cast until you and he steps back with a smile and a shake of the head. "Won't you?" she says. "What non-"One moment," he says, in a low sense! You haven't given them time. voice, and he bends over her hands, Well—" and she takes up her rod, a ment.

Sir Herrick, walking up to him. "Any is a splash in the water, and her laugh other day will do."

Sin Herrick, walking up to him. "Any is a splash in the water, and her laugh drew a pass, stealing second. Ed. "Yes," she says. "Number one. It is Bell reached the plate on the throw. Ward's fumble of Graham's hit let a large one, too."

modestly. it as well as I can " fly as well as I can—pretty nearly, and she knows all the best places, don't she knows all the best places. she knows all the best places, don't stream, leaping out of the water now and again, and gleaming in the sun; until, when he begins to tire, Paula raises her rod, and with a swift, graceful turn of her wrist brings him to "Beautiful?" cries Sir Herrick. But Paula is heart and soul in her work.

"Quick!" she cries, as if it were Bob standing beside her and not Sir Herrick Powis. "Quick, or he will be gone again. Kneel down and put your hand And Paula after a moment's hestita- throw him on the bank! It is a under him, and when I say Obediently he kneels at her feet, and LONDONERS MADE beauty!

"Now!" she cries, in her clear voice Of course it is not the proper thing or a young lady to accompany a lies, a bar of silver, upon the grass behind her, Flushed and panting she stands looking down at him, and still kneels looking up at her. Her hat has fallen in the excitement of the gravel path the preceding evening by the gentle breeze, caresses her low struggle, and the soft red hair, ruffled forehead; her lips are half parted, her eyes beaming. Venus rising from the crested waves surely did not look more beautiful, more soul-entrancing. He rises slowly, with a long-drawn breath, and fetches the fish.
"That was splendid!" he says. simply issued his orders, and she can scarcely turn round with a blank refly. You shall go on, and I will watch."

Det Device she had and puts her rod over her shoulder.

PERRINS PLAYED

[To be Continued.]

Wholesale League Game at Springbank Saturday Twice Interrupted by Rain.

The game in the Wholesale League at Springbank on Saturday afternoon drew the usual large crowd. The game was between the Perrin and McClary Clubs, and the interest was just as apparent as ever, as these clubs generally put up a good article of ball. The game on Saturday was twice interrupt-He lights a cigarette and slings his ed by rain. Play was suspended at the fishing basket on his shoulders, then he half of the second inning, and was not Toronto. In, this event Screaton came resumed until 4:40, and the game was within one of making the possible called again at the fifth inning, owing nd Paula relinquishes it.

to the storm, the score standing 7 to 2 would have given him another chance at the winding path and in favor of the McClary nine. The work at the prize. What made it appear all

ice	McClary 7	3		2
	Bennets 6	4		2	. (
he	Perrin 4	4		4	.!
	White 1	7		4
ier	The score on Saturda
lo-	Perrins. A.B.	R. B	Н.	P.O	. A.
	Summers, c3	0	0	7	4
he	Perkins, 2 b 3	0	1	4	1
ho	Taylor, 1 b 2	0	0		0
hy	Gregory, I. I 2	1	1	0	0
	B. Clark, s. s 2	0		0	0
es;	Bennett, r. f 2	0	1	1	0
ec-	W. Clark, p 2	1	0		1
een	Woods, c. f 2	0			0
nen	Lepper, 3 b 2	0	0	1	0
his		-	-	-	-
	Totals20	2	4	17	6
he	McClarys. A.B.		H.	P.0	. A.
	Eccleston, 1. f 3	1	1	0	0
he	Roberts, s. s 3	1	1	0	1
ced	Collins, c 3		2		1
cy	Phillips, p 3 Abram, c. f 3	0	0	1	2
ner	Abram, c. f 3	1	0	5	0
PARSON TO SAME	Holman, 1 b 3	1	0	4	0
ng	McLenty, r. f 3	1	2	0	0
rs.	Smith, 2 b 3	1.			0
ng	Stewart, 3 b 3	0	0	0	0
ust			-	-	-
	Totals27		7	15	4
ile.	McClarys		0	4 2	0 1
ter	Perrins		- 0	2 0	0 0
	Summary: Struck			0090	*****

that he had the power of transferring M'CLARY NINE LOST GAME BY A SERIES OF INFIELD ERRORS in 1899, John McGraw signed the "Iron Man" for Baltimore. McGraw and his supposed team of "dubs" set a hot

Yet It Nearly Tied the Rockets | Delaney, I. f...... 4 0 0 5 in the Last Inning—The

He is too well-bred to argue, and stepping to the edge of the stream throws the fly lightly on the water, and Paula stands a little way back watching him.

There is a cloud over the sun just at the moment; a most favorable time in which to insure the silvery trout; but though they rise before him he does not succeed, and Paula smiles.

Almost as if he saw her, he turns his head.

"You are laughing at me," he says.

"I won't throw another cost until won't was reduced. Stein. In 1900, when the ing cut to six innings by the rainstorm. of game, 1 hour 40 minutes. Umpire, Steve Had the score in the first game been in accordance with the hits, very few into the Rockets' hands by a series of runs would have been made. Both bad infield errors. With two hits, the voice, and he bends over her hands, "there!" Paula whips her hands behind her as Bob enters.

"I'm very sorry, Sir Herrick," he says, "but I'm afraid I can't go with you this morning, A man has come over on business, and I'll have to go with him. It's Jackson, Paula, and he season between the says there are some pigs at Wolfden market, I shall have to go and see them."

Well—" and she takes up her rod, a light, "girlish" thing, as Bob would light, "girlish" thing, as Bob would call it, and raising her arm, throws the first of the both the says which is a feat which may and the hits were few and far between. Dewan, who should have been put out the first inning. The Londons got in their run after two men were out. The Labels were given men reached first on misplays counted for four runs. Dewan, who should have been put out at first, secured a round-trip ticket when the ball was lost. The foundry by five hits off Maule. Then in the sixth when, because of rain, it was whether anything more graceful has ever been imagined than this little best the Labels could do. Until the eighth, with the score against them, they struggled until their efforts bore fruit. Then there was but a single reat chance in their half, and three when the ball, the MoClarys bard to handle the ball but tied the score.

No less than twenty-five American fruit. Then there was but a single reat chance in their run after two men scored in the first inning.

The Londons got in their run after two men scored in the first inning.

The Londons got in their run after two men scored in the first inning.

The Londons got in their run after two men scored in the ball was lost. The foundry when the ball was lost. The foundry when the ball when the ball was lost. The foundry when the ball when the ball sides made errors at inopportune times four misplays counted for four runs. good. London had won its game in G. Arthurs, 1 b.... 2 1 A.B. R. B.H. P.O. A. E. "You have got one," he says, going Stein's single placed inin on third then wantess was retired by Maxwell.

"A beauty!" he says, with a dash a well-placed single and Grant (who Stein home. Then Sheere smashed out Maule, p. "Will you take the rod?" says Paula, drew a pass), and Graham came home on the jump. Fleming flew out, retiring the side. The score: A.B. R. B.H. P.O. A. E. Sippi, 2 b...... 4 Bell, 3 b..... 3 Sheere, r. f...... Totals. Blue Labels. A.B. R. B.H. P.O.

Totals. C. Stein, s. s...... Ward, 3 b..... Maxwell, 2 b... Gatecliffe, r. f..

THE AMERICAN.

THE NATIONAL.

THE EASTERN.

Won. Lost.

New York 69 27

Pittsburg

17 Baltimore

15 | St. Louis

Messrs. B. W. Glover and Sid Three Clubs Bunched for First Is in Good Shape Now-Mun-Screaton at Brantford Place in American—Only Tournament. Two Points Difference.

did remarkably well, although they are comparatively young at the sport, Boston having first started shooting with the Chicago Springwood Gun Club of this city only a year ago. Messrs, Glover and Screation were entered in ten events on Thursday, and each shot an average of the control of the chicago of the control of the chicago of the control of the chicago of the chica Thursday, and each shot an average of over 82 per cent, the former making Washington 22 73

	enty birds in e	ach event,	the sco
E	vent. 1	Glover.	Screat
No.	1	16
No.	2	17
No.	3	13
No.	4	16
No.	5
No.	6	17
No	7	17
No.	8
	9
No.	10
140.	10	17
	Totals	101
	Totals	164

Toronto Aug. 13.—At a recent meeting of the East Boston Boat Club of Boston, Mass., it was decided to issue a challenge to the world for single whose great twirling so far this seascullers and to particularly name Lou son has largely be n responsible for jor Delmar to reduce the trotting recton, Mass., it was decided to issue a ball cranks as the "Iron Man," and Empire City track, New York, was con-

Paula notices that it is emblazed with the Pow's creat-trow hawks with out the Pow's creat-trow hawks with the Co. d. Moorhood, C. d. Moorhood

2 played with last year most of the shifts being made since the season started. Philadelphia and Chicago 3 are, in fact, the only teams in the circuit that have not made changes. The list of players who have been shifted since the end of last season follows, Totals..... 6 the players who were changed before McClarys. A.B. R. B.H. P.O. A. E. the season opened being marked with

Edwards, c. f...... 4 Richardson, l. f.... 3 Early, p. ... Breen, 3 b. A. Turner, 2 b..... 3 0 1 4 Pirie, r. f..... 2 1 1

New York, Hill and Huelsman, of St. McClarys 0 1 1 0 0 2-4 Louis, O'Neil, of Boston. Summary: Stolen bases—G. Arthurs, Cleveland of Detroit. Struck out—By Early 3 (Odell, Maule 2); by Maule 1 (Patrick). Bases on balls—Off Early 2 (G. Arthurs, Odell). Passed ball Stovall,* of Drill, of W by Madie 1 (Patrick). Bases on balls—off Early 2 (G. Arthurs, Odell). Passed ball 0 —Wilson 1. Left on bases—McClarys 5, Rockets 4. First base on errors—McClarys 1 6, Rockets 9, Time of game, 1 hour 5 1 minutes. Umpire, Steve Dunn.

roe's Trainers Optimistic About Miner's Chances.

supposed team of "dubs" set a hot pace for the league that year, and McGinnity was the principal factor in the pitcher's box. He pitched in forty-

Baltimore finished the season with .581 manager of the Giants the early part of last year he brought McGinnity along with him to New York. McGin-

nity did great twirling for the Glants

last season, taking part in three double headers during the season, winning all on different teams from those they

Boston-Unglaub,* of New York

New York - Orth, of Washington, Dougherty, of Boston, Powell* and Anderson*, of St. Louis, McGuire,* of

Washington - Wolfe and Hughes, of

Cleveland - Lush,* Buelow and Carr,

Detroit - Hickman, Killian,* and

Stovall,* of Cleveland, Coughlin and

St. Louis - Moran, of Washington,

Howell* and O'Connor, of New York.

Drill, of Washington, Beville, of New

Tannehill,* of New York, Selbach, of 3 Washington.

Detroit.

York.

"That was splendid!" he says. "He is almost too long for the basket. Your prother was right; you can throw a last week attending the big shoot held in the prother and shakes her head, and puts her rod over her shoulder.

ITo be Continued!

Messrs. B. W. Glover and Sid Screation. There were over seventy competitors in the manner of the prother was right; which is almost too long for the basket. Your by Joe S. (Wilson)

As a result of the games of Saturday, and Sunday, Boston is now in first place but it has a margin of only two points over the Highlanders and White Sox, who are tied for second place. The Attendance by Joe S. (Wilson)

It has a margin of only two points over the Highlanders and White Sox, who are tied for second place. The Attendance by Joe S. (Wilson)

It has a margin of only two points over the Highlanders and White Sox, who are tied for second place. The Attletics are a good fourth. Boston is now playing at Chicago and New York.

ITo be Continued!

John Taylor, b. g., by Dispute—Dolly by Joe S. (Wilson)

Lisonjero, Anna Little. Billie Foster Boy, The King, in order. Time 2:27½.

IN THE over seventy competitors in the majority of the events, and the Londoners of the standing:

| Over seventy competitors in the majority of the events, and the Londoners of the standing: | Chicago and New York of the events, and the Londoners of the standing: | Chicago and New York of the events, and the Londoners of the standing: | Chicago and New York of the events, and the Londoners of the events, and the Londoners of the standing: | Chicago and New York of the events, and the Londoners of the events o with the 400-pound sand bag. The housemaid's hinge has been 2:021/4. Won. Lost. P.C. tried in the fire and proven, and if .602 the champion is doomed to break down again during the present cam-

548 of his anatomy.
427 Further mishaps are not looked for. however. So far as the work of prep-.232 aration is concerned Jeffries feels that he has rounded the stretch bend and is heading for the wire. All those who have had to do with getting the .584 will mount the steps of the fighting platform in good shape on the night In Billy Delaney's opinion Jeffries has been fit to go to the

.276 scratch for several days. MUNROE IN FINE SHAPE. The men who are handling Jack an air of attentive respect with which he opens the gate for her and assists her over stiles, that is not lost upon Paula.

But given a lovely morning in June, and two young people of different sexes walking across meadows fresh with the breath of summer and silence.

Won. Lost. Play. Cent. with the breath of summer and silence in the said he was to using the fair grounds, where dress-ton and screating the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description and Screating the said he was ton seventeen. In the Grand Canadian handicap at eighteen and Screating to using the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the stable of E. Outsing the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the club free day. With this matter settled, the seading of charge, and these finally carried the day. With this matter settled, the seading of charge, and these finally carried the day. With this matter settled, the seading of the quoiters is expected to company the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the fair grounds, where dress-ton description in the countries. Attendance, 30,17 and Screaton in the prospects of a match with either the prospect of the club free countries. The keene colt led from start to find the countries. The prospect of the club free countries and the was the prospect of the club free countries. The prospect of the club free countries. The prospect of the club free

Mile in 2:021-4.

Joe McGinnity, known to the base- The Grand Circuit meeting at the Ebbets, of the Brooklyn Club. When the Brooklyns and Baltimores were consolidated, and parceled out in 1899, John McGraw signed the "Iron in 1899, McGraw signed the Iron in 1899, McGraw signed the Iron

7 five games, winning twenty-eight. His percentage of victories was .622, while

Regular $6 50. To close out only, each (all ready for use), .. $4 00 Galvanized Tubs-do not rust or fall to pieces. We now have all the

LOOK OVER THIS LIST. Gas Toasters, round 25e Colanders 10e Wash Boilers, No. 8, Copper, pit bottom, each $1 15

Big Values in China and Crockery This Week

Dandy C., Birdina, Centrific, Bessie field Club, from which Pittsburg se-Drake in order. Time, 2:051/4. cured Charley Case. 2:15 pace—dash one and one-sixteenth POLICEMEN LOST GAME. A team representing the city police Cheery Lass., b. m., by Bobbie Mc-Gregor-Welcome Bunker (Andrews) 1 team on Saturday by a score of 21 to Belle Starr, br. m. (Shank) 2 17. The police led to the last inning. Dewey, Fred N., Skyland Girl in order. Time, 2:14%.

Leonardo, ro. g., by Bellini-Lena Batteries—and Dooln. Jolly Bachelor, b, g. (Spear) 3 At Philadelphia (second game) Time, 1:02%. 2:09 trot, purse $700—Dash one and and Dooin. Umpire, Zimmer. Attend-one-sixteenth miles-down again during the present campaign it will be at some other point ANNUAL TOURNEY IN SEPTEMBER and Also Decides on New Grounds.

The members of the Forest City Attendance, 24,984. DELHI LED ALL WAY

IN SARATOGA DERBY

Nearyweights of every known variety. There is just one thing wanted to complete Munoe's happiness at present. He would like to have Kid McCoy around. He believes McCoy showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in daily hopes of being joined by McCoy at the beach. McCoy, when heard Derby today, his only opponents for live was a may be an expressed by McCoy at the renting of the grounds in rear of the Grand the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but where to go was a matter that they could not readily decide. Some favored the renting of the grounds in the rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but where to go was a matter that they could not readily decide. Some favored the renting of the grounds in the rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear of the Grand Trunk station were unsuitable, but the old grounds in rear o heavyweights of every known variety. members generally for some time that At St. Louis-

Canada, Glover scored 42 and Screaton 39. The shoot was in every way a success, and brought together many of the crack amateur riflemen of the united States and Canada.

SCHOLES THROWS

GREER AGAIN

They had gone nearly a mile, at which point Stalwart passed him, finishing in second position, a length and a smuch in front of his stable mate.

WORLD'S RECORD

WAS EQUALED

They will surely create to commerce the annual tournament was fixed for Sept. At the last meeting the question of the annual tournament was fixed for Sept. Schooles Throws

WORLD'S RECORD

WAS EQUALED

WAS EQUALED

The glover scored 42 and Screaton 39. The shoot was in every way a nearly a mile, at which participes 40. The shoot was in every way a nearly a mile, at which point Stalwart passed him, finishing in second position, a length and a smuch in front of the sand tawns fixed for Sept. At the last meeting the question of the annual tournament was some excitement when he turns up at the beach.

WORLD'S RECORD

WAS EQUALED

WAS EQUALED

The kld told his interviewers that the expected to commerce in earnest.

At the last meeting the question of the annual tournament was not been completed. At programme has not been completed. Universely the programme has not been completed. The beach of the same of the programme has not been completed. The programme has not been completed. At Providence—Universely the programme has not been completed. The programm in 1905 before it will become his prop- ance, 3,100.

> TORONTO CLUB WILL NOT PRESS PROTEST

be:

"Happy," says Paula, with a smile.

"Yes, I suppose we are happy. Better put our rods up here."

He takes her rod and fist it for her, and follows suit with his own. Then her his fist-book. It is a service-able one of time-stained leather, but half one of time-stained leather, but here of the Diamond Sculls. Copies of the paula notices that it is emblazoned with the Powise crest—two halfs the Powise crest—two halfs the Powise crest—two hands here his fist-book and the Powise crest—two halfs the first began playing professional baseball in 1894 with the Kansas of the Harfen Powise creation of his own the half in 1:00%, to the three-quary large trees in 1:30% and came home in 2:0246.

Toronto Aug. 12.—The Toronto Aug

force lost to the London Junction 3 when the Junction team scored 12 runs. IN THE NATIONAL. Saturday Games,

Batteries-Weimer and Kling; Corridon Batteries-Briggs and O'Neill; Sparks

......0 0 0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0-2 6

Lisonjero, Anna Little. Billie Foster

Boy. The King in order. Time 2.2714

Batteries—Harper, Hahn and Schlei;
Taylor and Bowerman and Warner.
Umpire, Emslie. Attendance, 24,623. IN THE AMERICAN. Saturday Games.

Donovan and Beville, At Detroit (second game)-Washington000020000-2 6 1
Detroit000000010-1 5 0
Batteries-Patten and Kittredge and Clarke; Mullen and Beville. Umpires, King and O'Loughin. Attendance, 6,000. At Cleveland—

Creveland01200400*-710 1 Philadelphia0010001000-211 3 Batteries—Donanue and Buelow; Plank, big fellow ready for his seventh championship battle are confident he confident he

of rain. Batteries—White and Sullivan; Chesbro and McGuire. Umpire, Sheridan.

They go down the winding path and across the meadows, and presently the brawl of the river, as it tumbles over the stones smites upon their ears. Paula is very quiet, and Sir Herrick smokes in respectful silence. There is an air of attentive respect with which he opens the gate for her and are of attentive respect with which he opens the gate for her and assists here.

In the Grand Canadian

In favor of the McClary nine. The work of Abram in center field for McClarys, the more unfortunate was the fact that showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in pitched good ball, but wild-throwing and are of attentive respect with which he opens the gate for her and assists here.

In the Grand Canadian

In favor of the McClary nine. The work of Abram in center field for McClarys, the more unfortunate was the fact that showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in of the grounds in the rear of the grounds in the rear of the grounds in the more unfortunate was the fact that showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in on the print of the grounds in the more unfortunate was the fact that showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in on the rear of the grounds in the main of the C. P. R. station, but the main objection to that move was the outlay at the beach. McCoy, when heard objection to that move was the outlay objection to that move was the outlay at the price. What made it appear all the more unfortunate was the fact that showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in on the rear of the grounds in the rear of the grounds in the more unfortunate was the fact that showed him lots of tricks while he was training for Sharkey and he is in on the print of the grounds in the price. The more unfortunate was the fact that the more unfortunate was the fact that the more of the grounds in th IN THE EASTERN.

Saturday Games.

At Providence — Newark - Providence game postponed; rain. TURF.

WATERBOY FOR THE STUD. Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 13,--In view of