Some of them vary the ing of running rights over the former for the Intercolonial. The proposals were that the Government should reserve to itself these rights over the Grand Trunk from Montreal to Coteau and then over the Canada Atlantic for through freight and passenger trains and do a local freight and passenger business. The terms of compensation for such rights shall be determined by the railway commission with an appeal to the supreme court instead of to the governor-in-council as in ordinary cases. Tariff rates are to be subject to the railway commission as regards freight. Passengers carried by the I. C. R. over the C. A. R. and Grand Trunk, and also carried to points on
