CHURCH WEDDING WAS FASHIONABLE

Feaver-Hill Nuptials at St. days, owing so the number of officers, John the Evangelist-Bride's Uncle Officiates.

A large and fashionable wedding took place in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, corner of Wellington and St. noon, when Miss Marion Brooks Hill, eldest daughter of Mr. F. Brooks Hill, of Salisbury, England became the bride of Rev. Herbert Feaver, rector of the Anglican church, Glace Bay, Nova Scotia. Canon Hill, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony, and he was assisted by Rev. Canon Farthing, of Woodstock and Rev. Canon Dann, of this city.

The ceremony was held directly under Wife of Late Postmaster Succumbs a beautiful floral arch and the church was very prettily decorated for the oc-
