LONDON TEAM LOSES FIRST OF THE SERIES TO OTTAWA

LOOSE FIELDING BY INDIANS

McManus Pitched Good Ball and Was Given Fine Support-Silcox Also Pitched Well, But Support Was Shaky-Good Game Until Fifth Inning.

Mr. Bowerman's Indians received a rude joit at the hands of Mr. L. Coek's criminals at Tecumseh Park yesterday afternoon, said jolt being in the nature of a 10 to 5 score, with the clean-uppers from the Capital on the heavy end. of a 10 to 5 score, with the clean-uppers from the Capital on the heavy end. The real knockout came in the fifth round, when the local barn-stormers exhibited a few blunders which, mingled freely with Ottawa hits, lotailed a cool four runs for the enemy. It was this staggerisg thrust that put the redskins to the bad, and they were counted out in the remaining stanzas.

To explain this latest crimp in the pennant ambitions of the local hire-ings would be trying to make excuses for a lot of errors that show in the official statistics, and a whole lot more that do not. Some parts of the frelic should be passed over with merely a painful comment. It was a case of aviating in the critical jiffys, and to simply say that the game was presented to Mr. Cook's farmhands would be letting the locals down easy.

SOME PARTS WERE GOOD.

About a thousand rabid bugs journeyed over to the hat-box to see the 'fecumsehs take a rise out of the league leaders, but they were doomed to disappointment. Instead they witnessed a game that was only partly an exhibition of Father Chadwick's favorite amusement, while the rest looked like a mixture of buttoney-buttoney-blue-whose-got-the-button and duck-on-the-

of Mr. J. McManus, the Palmyra Paloola, heaved 'em over in the interests of Mr. Cock's delegates, and the big "rube" was there with the goods just the same as he has been in the previous ten or eleven games he pitched lately. He wobbled a little on his pins during the early spasms, but that four-run affair in the fifth tickled him so that he was able to finish the game with a burst of speed that dazzled the local swatters. He tightened up faster than a kid at a picnic feed during the last sessions, and the Bowermanites' feeble attempts to make a palse like a tally were immediately smothered. attempts to make a noise like a tally were immediately smothered.

This was all right, for in the Bowerman part of the opening chapter, Mr. Gilhooley smashed one to chapter, Mr. Gilhooley smashed one to left for one pillow and Mr. Bierbauer followed with a two-cushion drive to centre. This was quickly followed by centre. This was quickly followed by Schwind's wild peg over Dolan's head of Cocash's easy grounder, which brought Messrs. Gilhooley and Bierbetter coroses the bauer across the pan.

The hashslingers from the parliamentary city were not to be denied, however, and in their half, they garnered two when Cocash muffed Callahan's fly and Hopper followed with a double to the advertising section of

What the Others Are Saying

Glinta From Papers on Canadian League Circuit.

JUST A PIPE DREAM.

Hamilton Times: We have a beautiful pipesmoke picture of our Canadian talented ball team being presented with the Canadian League pennant at the end of this season, and the distinguished and highly paid athletes in service of Mr. G. Lee bowing upon receiving it. (Who's got a match? Our pipe's out).

Our pipe's out).

WHY OTTAWA WINS.

Ottawa Citizen: Much of the success of the Ottawas this season has been due to the manner in which the players "pull." They are like one big family and they all idolize Cook. When Draper lost his game on Saturday last through the blunders of his team-mates, the whole camp was plunged into mourning. "Topsy" is the life of the team.

CAUSE OF ANXIETY AT BRANTFORD.

Brantford Expositor: We have doubts if that Hamilton club is anywhere near within the salary limit.

near within the salary limit,
NOTHING BOTHERS THE KOLTS.

Hamilton Times: It will be observed that the hot weather does not affect the Kolts. They play right on and continue to win and lose with that conscientious regularity which is wholly superior to temperature. The Kolts are warranted to stand any climate and play without shrinking or changing color YES, SO IT PROVED.

Ottawa Free Press: It seems rather hard luck that Joe McManus should any of the big events, was outclassed go to London with thirteen wins. However, it may be a lucky number for him and unlucky for London.

MAKING FUN OF JIMMY.

To the M. and M. stake at Detroit of any of the big events, was outclassed any of the big events.

Hamilton Times: President Fitzgerald, it is understood, will order the Dobinion railway board to instruct all conductors and engineers not to stop at cuelph, thus putting the Royal City off the railway map.

LATEST NEWS OF BILL BLAKE.

Brantford Expositor: Umpire Biake in his initial appearance here did well. There was little to complain of although the fans felt peevish at times.
