Inning. Ottawa, Aug. 6 .- In the last game of the Brantford series this afternoon, the Ottawas were victorious by a score of 4 to 3. The visitors became dangerous in the last frame and Kubat, who until then had pitched good ball, was taken out, Rogers going in with the bases full and holding the Red Sox to one run on a clean single. The match was one of the finest of the season. Umpire Davis was on the job again, and though the crowd was small, there was all kinds of excitement. Rogers distinguished himself with a home run in the fifth inning. though Catcher D. Coose claimed that he had nailed him at Beautiful catches by Slemin, Robertson and Smykal featured the match. The Brantford team all played snappy ball, demonstrating what they could consistently do if they got right down to business. The win increased Ottawa's lead, as Rube Deneau and his London blokes were idle on ac
