Amendment Defeated.
Professor Ballantyne of Knox Colgen moved an amendment that an appointment be made to the chair of religious education at Knox College.

He felt that no one would propose to abolish Knox College, even under to the chair of religious education at Knox College. to abolish Knox College, even under union, in view of its location and standing. The staff, he said, had been reduced by death two years ago, and the vacancy had not yet been filled. It would be a poor policy, he said, to starve a great college like Knox.

On division, the amendment was defeated and the recommendation to defer appointments for a year was adopted.

PERMANENT ROADWAY

SARNIA, June 9.—A deputation from the village of Watfcrd waited upon the Lambton County Council at today's session asking assistance in the building of a more or less permanent road through that municipality. The main road through the village forms part of the county provincial system, the spokesman, J. Conley, pointed out, and it is also the main traveled road between the townships of Brooke and Warwick, and therefore bears much traffic. The speaker further stated that a delegation had interviewed the Hon. F. C. Biggs, minister of highways, and had been advised that the only way they could get help from the Government would be through the county council.
