Another Force Despatched to Help Capture the Boers at Wepener.

While Relief Halts Few Miles Distant Garrison Repel Fierce Attack.

Canadian Mounted Divisions Advances Without Opposition—Brabant's Success.

London, April 24.—(11:15 p. m.)—The war office issues the following from Lord Roberts:

"Bloemfontein, April 24.—Gen. Brabant and Gen. Hart yesterday turned the position occupied by the Boers, who tried to prevent their moving northward, and got into telegraphic communication with Col. Dalgety, commandant of the besieged garrison at Wepener, who reported all well.

"Gen. Brabant has three wounded, one missing. Three were wounded on the previous day. The Border Regiment had seven wounded. The 11th Division, under Gen. Pole-Carew, and Gen. Leeseu's brigade of cavalry reached Tweede Elck yesterday afternoon without having met opposition."

"Telegraphic communication has been established with Gen. Kundle. A patrol of the Seventh Dragoons, under Lieut. Jenkinson, which was reported missing yesterday, has rejoined General French's camp with the exception of Corporal Taylor, last seen near Wepener, who are believed to be wounded and prisoners.

"Mounted infantry yesterday under General Hamilton occupied the waterworks at Sannas Post. As the enemy are holding the neighboring hills, in some strength, the Ninth Division, consisting of Gen. Smith Dorrien's and Gen. Macdonald's brigades, has been detached to support Hamilton.

"Gen. Chermadine, of the Seventh Division, yesterday moved eastward, and seized the hills covering the road over the Modder river and Kranz Kraal, an important communication which used by the Boers during the last campaign. Our own casualty was 'Private Brum, New South Wales Rifles, taken prisoner.'"

Masere, Basutoland, April 24.—The Boers severely attacked Col. Dalgety's northern position facing Bokpoort ridge at 10 o'clock this morning, bringing four guns into action, under whose fire they made a determined advance.

The British returned a heavy fire, before which the Boers retreated, afterward extending across the flats, maintaining a continuous long-range fusillade for some hours.

Firing was heard in the direction of Dewetsdorp, but there is no sign that the Boers intend that that quarter has advanced further.

The natives report that another British force has been detached from Wepener and is now in the position of the Boers around Wepener is precarious.

London, April 25.—5 a. m.—The reports that the siege of Wepener has been practically raised were apparently premature. The Boers during the night of the 23rd and 24th, repulsed the attack little further anxiety is felt on his account.

Lord Roberts' Col now spread a net with some 40,000 or more men and 150 guns, covering the whole western semi-circle around Wepener, while Gen. Hamilton has occupied the waterworks practically without opposition. The Seventh Division, under General Tucker, assisted by naval guns, has made a demonstration from Karree Sliding, the Boers showing him opposition. At the same time a brigade moved out from Gen. Dalgety's position on a range of hills at Genadendal, north of the Modder. The waterworks were found undamaged with the exception of the removal of the sliding valves on the pumping engines.

"Our bread is now made entirely of oats, and is full of husks. This causes much sickness. There are many cases of nervous prostration and malarial typhoid among the garrison.

"The news of the check to the relieving column is a terrible disappointment. Last Friday thirty-three natives issued forth to recover some cattle which had been looted by the Boers.
