ENLISTS AT CHATHAM

Among the recruits who enlisted at Chatham for the 132nd Batt., is found the name of John J. Thompson of Glenelg.

NO SERVICE

There will be no service in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church at New Richmond and Grand Cascadia on Sunday next.

CHRISTMAS EDITION

Many requests for extra copies of our Christmas edition have been received and it is earnestly hoped that all who desire extra copies should send in their order at once to the Graphic office.

Tipperary Fair in Dincock's Tea Room, Friday, December 3rd, 7.30 to 10 p. m. Fancy work, home cooking, refreshments served during the evening.

MARRIAGE

Married at the Manse, Tide Head, on November 30th, Angus Dobson of Campbellton and Miss Margaret Harris of Broadlands. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. G. Firth.

MILD WEATHER

We have had quite a spell of mild weather during the past week and our nice white layer of snow has gone. The streets were a little to the soft side for a few days but today have hardened up some.

IN CAMP IN ENGLAND

Letters are being received from members of the 55th Battalion, now in camp at Bramshot, about forty miles from London. The battalion is in comfortable quarters and is undergoing a course of training prior to departure for the front.

INSTITUTE NOTES

The receipts from the Women's Institute supper now total $159.90, including a donation of $1.00 from Mrs. Peter Gerrard. Other donations include 3 mufflers from Mrs. Wm. Napier, one pair socks from Mrs. Thomas McNeilish of Dalhousie Junction.

CHRISTMAS PHOTOS

You should arrange for your sitting now for that Christmas photo. There is always a rush at the last minute and to be certain of your Christmas gift you should have your picture taken now. A dark day doesn't matter. All days are alike to MERSEAU, the photographer.

REPORTED WOUNDED

A report has been current in this city for some days to the effect that Mr. Shirley Muirhead, of Anderson's battery, had been blinded by poisonous gases. A letter received yesterday from Gunner Charles McCallum of the same corps states that Shirley's sight was for a time affected, but that rest and good attendance have entirely removed the trouble and his vision is now normal, news which will be received with intense relief by Mr. Muirhead's many friends in this city from which he enlisted for the front.—Transcript.

Buy your Xmas presents at the Tipperary Fair.

CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fairservice of Chaleurs are receiving congratulations from their many friends on the arrival of a daughter in their home.

MASONIC MEETING

Past Masters Night will be observed next Monday evening at the meeting of the local lodge of Freemasons. A full attendance of members is requested and refreshments will be served.

MARRIAGE

At St. James Episcopal Church, Port Daniel, on November 15th by Rev. A. T. Love, Margaret Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ross to Brackly Powell of Black Cape.

INSTITUTE MEETING

The Women's Institute meets the third Monday evening of the month and an invitation is extended to any lady wishing to join.

FUNNY

The police this week were unable to accommodate any persons desiring arrest for drunkenness. There were none.

NEW BLACKSMITH

Mr. Alex. LeBlanc has opened up on Gerrard Lane a blacksmith shop in the stand lately occupied by Mr. Frank McGregor.

YOUR COAL

If you are in need of coal, ring up 263, Wm. J. Price, who has as good coal as you will find on the market. Prices are right.

EXTEND CALL

At a meeting of the Presbyterian congregation held in New Richmond on November 29th, an unanimous call was extended to Rev. E. J. Rattee with a guarantee of twelve hundred dollars as the yearly stipend.

The best cooks of Campbellton will provide cake and candy for the Tipperary Fair.

A CUT IN PRICE

The Canadian Liberal Monthly, the official organ of the Liberal party, has been reduced in price from $1 to 25 cents a year. It is published at Ottawa once a month and contains a synopsis of political events, prepared in an attractive manner. No Liberal who desires to keep posted on political events should be without this paper. Subscriptions should be sent to the Liberal Monthly, 63 Sparks street, Ottawa.

POLICE NEWS

Last night a commotion was caused on the street in the upper part of the town, when a crowd of young fellows gathered around a stranger accusing him of being a German. The police dismissed the disturbers, but later on were obliged to take the stranger to the lock-up charging him with loitering around and failing to give a satisfactory account of himself. He was brought before the Magistrate this morning and mulcted in a small fine.

NEW ADVERTISER

THE WEATHER

We have had very soft weather during the past week and the nice white covering of snow we had disappeared. Yesterday, however, we had a light fall of snow which made things look more reasonable.

RETURN THANKS

The recruiting officers desire to express their appreciation of the kindness of Mr. A. C. Roy and Mr. A. J. Gorman who supplied teams to take friends to Flatlands on Sunday for the recruiting meeting. Also to the band and other gentlemen who gave their assistance in any way.

MISSION BAND CONCERT

The Mission Band in connection with the St. John's Presbyterian Church, Dalhousie, gave a very interesting concert in the basement of the church on Wednesday evening. Dainty socks, with an invitation and a programme were sent to friends of the band early in the week. The result was a full house, and an appreciative audience listened to splendidly prepared selections by the children. Mrs. Connacher, President of the band, and Mrs. Hoquard, her assistant, deserve great credit for their untiring efforts in training the children. The receipts were something over forty dollars, ($40.)

Great Auction at Tipperary Fair will begin at 8.30 p. m.

OBITUARY

(From the Gloucester Northern Light)
The death occurred on Thursday, November 25th, at his home in Canobie of Mr. Walter Peters. His funeral under Orange Auspices took place on Saturday afternoon and was largely attended. Services were conducted by Rev. W. McN. Matthews, assisted by Rev. C. Motyer. Mr. Peters is survived by his wife and one young son to whom much sympathy is extended.

If you can't fight you can pay and help the wounded heroes in khaki. Come to Tipperary.

JUST HERE!

Right here we want to drop a few remarks of interest to Winter Shoe Buyers.

Buying Shoes is a vastly different proposition from what it used to be years ago, when you wore your new Shoes out of the store, they were yours for life and the money belonged to the store.

You had no protection "no comeback" even if you found that the Shoes were not satisfactory.

To-day you came to this Store of Better Shoes and buy guaranteed Shoes, (with the exception of Patent Leather) with no string to the guarantee.

Remember we carry in stock the Famous Automobile Skates also the Famous Lightning Hitch Hockey Boots, give us a call before purchasing elsewhere.

All Skates and Boots Purchased Here Put on Free of Charge.
