the Norwegian skater, again defeated Fred Breen, the Canadian, in a mile skating race here to-day. Breen got the best of the start, but Hagen soon made up. For the first two laps Breen seemed to be holding his own, but at the end of the third Hagen gained rapidly and won the race by 40 yards in 2.49 4-5. Breen's time was 2.54 1-4. The third and last of the series of races, a five-mile event, will be skated Wednesday afternoon.

THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

Their Leisure Hours This Week— Plays and Conserts. Husband and Wife," a farcical come "Husband and Wife," a farcical comedy, was presented at the Academy last night to a good audience. The plot of the play is already generally known. It is a skit on the independent tendencies of the women of today. The idea of woe clubs for the emancipation of both husbands.and wives is a novel one, and the play is cleverly constructed with bright dialog and several amusing incidents are interspersed. The play is just a trifle light for a whole evening's entertainment, but this could be remedied with a curtain raiser of a serious nature.

The company is headed by Louise Thorndyke Boucicault, a very charming and a very beautiful woman. Her figure is most divinely graceful. She has the role of a sprightly and rather indiscreet widow. Her acting had sparkle and shows a thorough experience in all the arts and methods of the society comedienne. One feature of Mrs. Boucicault's work is particularly interesting to the man folk at any rate. She gives the impression of endeavoring to flutter just a trifie the strings of every male heart in the audience. The company is excellent, Mr. Charles W. Butler, whose Juffin in "Aunt Jack" is remembered for its delightfully artistic and unobtrusive comedy, is equally successful as old man Smith. His business and quiet natural comedy lent largely to the success of the performance. Miss Alice Butler made a comedy success as the maid, and Mrs. Haslam as Mrs. Smith, Miss Whitty as Mrs. Greenthorne, and Messrs. Hall and Penson as judge and clerk were also good.

At The Toronto.

Fitz & Webster's "A Breezy Time" held the boards at the Toronto Opera House last night, the house being filled to its utmost seating capacity. "A Breezy Time" is an eccentric comedy, full of repartee and funny situations and productive of laughter. There is not the shadow of a plot in the comedy, its success being due to the merriment it produces. Mr. E. B. Fitz, who is well known to theatregoers in Toronto, is the leading comedian. He appeared in the role of Reuben Merrifield, a typical Vermonter. Miss Kathryn Webster was excellent as Daisy Lightfoot, singing very nicely and giving general satisfaction, as did also Miss Anson's dancing. "A Breezy Time" will be repeated every evening this week with Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday matinees.

Among those who contributed to the evening's enjoyment were Messrs. Bennett, Laugmuir, McIntosh, Ferguson and Loughead. The hit of the evening was made by that popular humorist, Mr. Sam H.
