

ealized

vill build a motor car for the ide. It shall be large enough family, but small enough for skilled individual to easily and care for-and it shall be n weight that it may be econin maintenance. It will be f honest materials-by the best en that money can hire- after plest designs that modern enng can devise. But it shall be in price that the man of modneans may own one-and enth his family the blessings of hours spent in God's great paces."

nd every great undertaking is t ideal, born of great and sinspirations. At the time when rd Motor Company was organ-Henry Ford expressed his ions in this statement. The in which this ideal has been d is measured in the worldopularity of the Ford Motor he latest price reduction on has just been put into effect-ulfilling Mr. Ford'se ideal of g a car for the multitude.

Prices:

UCTION	NEW PRICES
$50.00	$395.00
40.00	455.00
40.00	495.00
30.00	545.00
arting and	Lighting $85 extra
60.00	780.00
60.00	870.00
lectric Sta	arting and Lighting
rd, Ontario	•

Garage STAR Lawn

Watford Guide-Advocate

Volume XLVIII-No. 39

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Bread is down a cent. How is your street cleaning account? Is it paid up?

A flannelette bargain 10 yards for $1.65, a fine wide cloth, good pat-terns.—Swift's.

Boys and squirrels are harvesting the most prolific crop of walnuts and hickory nuts that this district has grown for years. You buy Art Clothing you get what you want. Wide range of new suitings.—Swift's.

The merchan't who is too busy to change his advertisement is blood brother to the carpenter who hasn't time to sharpen his tools.

The season for rubbers is here. We have a full stock of all sizes.— P. Dodds & Son. A meeting of the Essex, Kent and

A meeting of the Essex, Kent and Lambton counties publishers and printers' association will be held at Chatham on Friday, Oct. 20. Two ranges of Comforters 65x72. good quality chintz, plain $3.25. fancy $4.25. A bargain.—Swift's. If the person who took the scales from Col. Kenward's garage by mis-take will return and get the weights, they may be of some use to him. P. Dodds & Son ask all those ow-ing the firm to make payment before

Ing the firm to make payment before October 20th and their so doing will be appreciated. A number of dwelling houses are being wired for hydro just now, the reduction of hydro rates being an inducement to use the unce increase inducement to use the juice instead inducement to use the juice instead of oil lamps. Rubber boots, good, strong, serv-iceable goods. Full line of sizes. Prices right.—P. Dodds & Son. The ladies of Trinity church Guild will hold a sale of home-made bak-ing in the basement of the Public Library on Saturday, Oct. 14. Sale at 4 o'clock. Threshing, sowing wheat, filling silos, husking corn and picking apples have kept the farmers very busy the past few weeks, one occupation have kept the farmers very busy the past few weeks, one occupation crowding the other closely. 15 pair White Marquisette Curtains with insertion, 2 yards long, a bar-gain at $2.40.—Swift's. Service will be held in Calvary Baptist church Sunday next at 3 p.m. and in Watford Baptist church at 7 p.m. Rev. L.J. Stones will preach. Subject: "Conversion and Conversa-tion."

Among the improvements made to Among the improvements made to houses in town this summer John Kersey has made an addition and other improvements to his home on St. Clair street. The Anglican rect-ory has had a new roof placed on it and much needed repairs and im-provements made in the interior at the cost of several hundred dollars. October is here, and we are right in the midst of the most glorious of Canadian seasons, when there is a tang in the air in the mornings and the great outdoors puts on its most tang in the air in the mornings and the great outdoors puts on its most attractive garb. Browning longed to be in England, "now that April's there," but so far as Canada is con-cerned, the month of October has a charm that is hard to resist. Evidence of the abundant crops througout this district has been seen at the various fairs in Lambton coun-

Miss Geraldine Durstan returned to Strathroy Hospital after a two weeks holiday with her sister in Pt. Huron and other friends. Mr. Jack Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Class and Carl A. Class Jr., motored to Kingsville on Sunday to visit the former's parents, Rev. S.P. and Mrs. Irwin througout this district has been seen at the various fairs in Lambton coun-by, the majority of which have now been held. It is claimed that the quality and number of exhibits at both agricultural and school fairs has greatly surpassed those of last year. This is a good indication of a return of prosperity in the farming community. The Musical Eckardts who are bill-ed to appear here on Saturday evened to appear here on Saturday even-ing, Oct. 14th, have been entertain-ing the public for a quarter of a century, and in that time have visited nearly every town and village in Canada and the northern states. T. Canada and the northern states. T. Eckardt, daddy of the organization, is still personally in charge of the company, and although an old man takes an active part in the perform-ance. Since their last visit to Wat-ford, two years ago, the Eckardts have engaged three men performers and promise an entire change of pro-gramme.

And promise an entire change of pro-gramme. Members of the Women's Institute and also of the I.O.D.E. visited the Public School on Friday last to distribute the prizes won at the re-cent School Fair. One hundred dol-lars in cash was distributed and also some articles donated were given out Coming un the aisle to receive out. Coming up the aisle to receive out. Coming up the aiste to receive the prizes won is the last but by no means the least of the pleasures de-nived by the little folks from the School Fair, judging from the smil-ing faces on Friday last. The value of a Public Library to a municipality or neighborhood de-municipality or neighborhood de-pends on the use made of it, and the character of the books perused and the way they are read. Many an in-dividual has secured a large fund of useful information because they want at it eventematically and stuck and in Watford Baptist church at 7 p.m. Rev. L.J. Stones will preach. Subject: "Conversion and Conversa-tion." "Local dealers are as yet unable to swoply any coal. But Providence is "tempering the wind to the shorn lamb" and giving us a long lease of sunshine and warmth. Long may it continue!! The Lambton's 149 I.O.D.E. will hold a dance in the Armory on Wel-Yourg People's classes will be held

PERSONAL

WATFORD, ONT., FRIDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1922

Dr.J.A. Cameron, Herman, Neb., is spending a week at his old home The price of bread in Glencoe has been reduced to 9c per loaf.

LAWN TENNIS MATCH

Jack Bowlon, Ailsa Craig, colored barber, died Sunday after being con-fined to his bed for a week. here. Mr. Fred Taylor, London, is visiting at his father's here for a few visiting at his father's here for a few days. Miss Sadie McCausland and hitle neice Jean, spent the weekend with her parents here. Mr. Jas. Griffith returned Thurs-day from an extended visit with rel-atives in Ottawa and district. Dr. and Mrs. Mitchell, London, and Miss Brown of Montreal, were weekend visitors at the home of Mrs. Wm: Mitchell. Miss Geraldine Durstan returned to Strathroy Hospital after a two

James Keenleyside the week. James Keenleyside the well-known license inspector of London, died Fri-day following a short illness, in his 67th year.

CHOP STUFF

The fall fairs have no fault to find with the weather this year, unless it be that farmers were more than ever tempted to stay at home and speed up tempted to stay at home and speed up the fall work. Jack Mitchell, Oakdale, happened with a bad accident on Saturday, which will lay him up for some time. While grathering corn the team ran away knocking him down and frac-turing several ribs.

Harry Sanders, late proprietor of the Arlington hotel, Sarnia, and family left recently for their old home at Coventry, England. Mrs. Kidd former proprietor of the hotel has taken possession.

visit the former's parents, Rev. S.P. and Mrs. Irwin. Mr. T. B. Taylor has returned from Guelph where he spent several weeks. Mrs. Taylor remains there for the present suffering with a slightly injured knee. Rev. Henry Coulter, a graduate of the Guide-Advocate, gave us a pleasant call on Thursday. Mr. Coul-ter is now situated in Nokomis, Sask, connected with a Union church and is down here to attend the Meth-odist conference in Toronto. It is about 28 years since he left here. Last year the Christian Guardian, the organ of the Methodist church in Canada, lost $20,000, and an appeal for increased circulation was sent out, accompanied by the declaration that it could' not be made to pay otherwise.

Clachen was entered Monday night of last week and about $80 in cash was stolen. County Police found the store in a state of disorder as though the robbers had worked hurriedly. This is the second robbery in that store within a month store at hurriedly. This is the second robbery in that store within a month. With a loss estimated at about $5,000, the barns and buildings on the farm of Joseph Bogart, a short distance from the town limits of Wallaceburg, were completely des-troyed by fire about three o'clock Thursday morning, together with all this year's hay and straw and a con-siderable amount of machinery.

by enthusiastic applause. The results: Men's Doubles:---(Alvinston) Lar-ter and Paul defeated (Watford) Franklin and Siddall 4-6--6-5. (Watford) Connolly and Kinnell defeated (Alvinston) Urie and Whit-ton 6-4--6-2. (Alvinston) Larter and Paul de-feated (Watford) Howden and H. Siddall 6-4--6-3. Mixed Doubles:---(Watford) Miss Dodds and Cönnolly defeated (Alvin-ston) Miss Gilroy and Urie 6-4--6-2. this year's hay and straw and a con-siderable amount of machinery. Simpson Goff, of Glencee, while hauling gravel two miles south of town, had a narrow escape from be-ing killed. While getting on his wagon which was leaded with gravel, the horses took fright and ran away. throwing Mr. Goff off. He escaped with three broken ribs. The horses were stopped without damage to the outfit.

During the attendance of Mr. and Mrs. John B. McKellar and other members of their household at the Glencoce fair unknown parties enter

$2.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE In United States $2.50

A surprise party was held at the home of Mr. Robert Johnston, 2nd line, Plympton, last Wednesday eve-ning in honor of his daughter, Ger-aldine, prior to her marriage. The young people of the Methodist thurch, about thirty in number, pre-sented her with a mahogany tray and cut glass salt cellars with silver spoons. The evening was yery pleas-antly passed with games and music. One of the most important sales of pure-bred Holsteins to be announ-ced in south-western Ontario for of pure-bred Holsteins to be announ-ced in south-western Ontario for some time is, without doubt the Allingham sale, which is selling at the farm near Sarnia, on Friday. October 20. Mr. Allingham, al-though only a young breeder, has in the past seven or eight years, built up a herd of cattle that is said to contain more good records for pro-duction than does any other one herd in the province, owned west of Mid-dlestex and Elgin counties. Border police are seeking for a diese and Elgin counties. Border police are seeking for a man and his 15-year-old bride, who ran away from a Gosfield South farm last week, obtained a marriage certificate by alleged questionable methods, and were married in Walk-erville. The couple are Camille Taverne, 34 years old, erstwhile farm hand, and May Elgeer, 15 years old, the gial in the case. The young couple's flight from the farm occurr-ed when May's father, Arthur, left the farm for a few days, and left the place in the hands of the hired man and his daughter. Elgeer swore out a warrant charging his new son-in-law with "unlawfully inducing a girl under the age of 18, to leave her parents." Allen James, a well-known local Aften James, a well-known local young married man, of Blenheim, suffered a most unfortunate accident Friday afternoon. He was one of a party of three to go chestnut hunt-ing near Duart and the accident hap-mened when he was standing on a ing near Duart and the accident hap-pened when he was standing on a branch a couple of feet above the ground and holding to another, which broke and let him drop. He landed on his feet, but stumbled and fell on his hands, fracturing both arms just above the wrists. He was driven 20 miles to his home to have the fracture set. Just how unfortunate the accident is may be realized from the fact that James is the operator at the local movie theater and is put out of business for many weeks to come. come

ALVINSTON FAIR

Alvinston, Oct. 10. — The 47th an-nual Brooke and Alvinston fall fair was held on Tuesday, and in spite of threatening weather, the attendance was-good, upwards of 3,500 being present. The agricultural hall was filled with one of the finest displays of fruits, vegetables, canned goods. members of their nousentite at the Glencoe fair, unknown parties enter-ed their farm house, situated on lot 21, second range north of Longwoods Road, Ekfrid, and after thoroughly ransacking all the rooms, got away with articles to the value of nearly $300. cess it was. Maple Ridge school ex-hibition won first prize and attracted much attention. , The entries of cattle and horses were not below the average, and many fine animals were shown. En-Is stated that the blight hit the crop early this year, and that the average yield will probably be between nine and ten tons to the acre, as compared with the yield of twelve tons to the acre last year. There were many fine exhibits at the rural school fairs reflecting much credit upon the youthful exhibitors but the best exhibit of all was the children themselves, eaer, interested were not below the average, and many fine animals were shown. En-tries of hogs and sheep did not come up to that of former years, but the fair, taken on the whole, was a de-cided success despite the efforts of the weather man to the contrary. Races were held in the afternoon and although the track was a little heavy much speed was shown. although the track was a little heavy much speed was shown. 2.25 Class outfit - Service at Bethel church next Sun-day evening at 7.30. Everybody otherwise. . F. W. Willson, Crown Attorney and barrister, Sarnia, has taken into partnership with him Leigh H.Snid-er and the firm will engage in the general practice of law under the name of Willson and Snider but no change in office quarters will be made.

The Alvinston Tennis Club visited Watford last Wednesday and played return match with the local teams. Each town scored two events. The players were considerably handi-capped with having only one court at their disposal so short sets had to be played, but it is hoped this handi-cap will be removed by next year. Some brilliant plays were staged in the sets of men's doubles and the spectators showed their appreciation by enthusiastic applause. The results : made. Cecil Janes' general

er Mark

g paper so invitingly ouch, that it seemed write on me!"? a paper. It comes in al smart tints. Sheets .Also correspondence ou Symphony Lawn?

s the best Stationery we have bought so quantity prices and sharp increases in all in all the leading had, and in the box.

STATIONERY	_ar	ren
IURE	TORE"	STATIONERY

hold a dance in the Armory on Wed-nesday, Oct. 25th, at 8 p.m. There will be good music. Refreshments will be good music. Refreshments will be served. Couple $1.50, extra lady 50c. lady 50c. In another column will be found a communication from a reader on the subject of the captured German can-We are glad to receive signed letters on this or any other public question.

Dr. and Mrs. Newell desire to ex-press their thanks to their many friends for comgratulations and gifts on the occasion of their golden wed-ding anniversary, and wish to assure them that the same were much appre-ciated ciated.

Dress goods for children's wear, 49 cents a yard, fine warm goods, splendid for separate skirts 49c.--Swift's Swift's. The lack of the big pumpkin at the fall fairs is remaked by old ex-hibitors who explain that at "pump-kin" planting time the ground was very dry, and the seed did not germ-inate. When it did come on, it was too late to ensure the large ones that have been in our dome in wars not too late to ensure the large ones that have been in evidence in years past. Out of a class of five taken to Lon-don by Mr. W.P. Macdonald, Cliff-ord Edwards, of Watford, won 3rd prize for judging heavy horses; Alex. Edwards, his brother, won first place for judging heep and 3rd place for judging beef cattle. Russell Parker, of Watford, got 2nd in the latter competition.

of Watford, got 2nd in the latter competition. On the afternoon of Thursday, Oct. 19, the W. I. will meet in the basement of the Public Library to pack a bale of clothing to send to the relief of the fire sufferers of New Ontario. Anyone wishing to con-tribute to this worthy cause will kindly leave their donations in the Library basement.

bin This worthy cause will kindly leave their donations in the Library basement. P. Dodds & Son stock of service-able, 'strong, well-made every day shoes is complete. Shoes made for wear, at reasonable prices. Come in and see them. The Lambton's 149 I.O.D.E. will meet in the basement of the Public Library on Thesday. Oct. 17th, at 1 of 'clock, to make quilts for the north-ern fire sufferers. Will anyone who could contribute finished tops of lin-gings for quilts or articles of warm clothing kindly leave them there at time.

oung People's classes will be held

Young People's classes will be held in Bethesda Methodist church, Sixth line, Warwick, on Wednesday, Oct. 25th, commencing at 1.30 o'clock. The address of welcome will be given by Rev. T. A. Steadman and Rev. F. J. Rutherford will reply. An in-teresting program will follow in which Rev. Manson Doyle, Rey. J. C. Moorehouse, Rev. W.K. Hager, Miss Beatrice Foster, Miss M. Mans-field, Miss Olark, Mr. Hair and Mr. Gerald Robertson will take part. Re-freshments will be served between 6 and 7 o'clock in the hall adjacent. Ladies' fancy pleated skirts, all all Ladies' fancy pleated skir'ts, all wool $5.50, $5.75 and $6.00. Snappy styles, lowest prices.—

Swift's Swift's. A musical entertainment by three graduates of the Ontario School for the Blind, Brantford, will be given in the Lyceum, Watford, on Wednes-day evening, Oct. 18th, at 8 p.m. The program will be given byKathryn Sells, A.T.C.M., Pianist and Ac-companist; Greta Lammie, A.T.C. M., Violinist, and Gladys Sley, solo-ist and elecutionist. These talented

M., Violinist, and Gladys Sley, solo-ist and elocutionist. These talented artists gave an entertainment here tast year which was much enjoyed and praised by those who were pres-ent. By request they are again ap-pearing in Watford. Make a point of hearing these accomplished young tadies, who, under the handicap of blindness, are earning their living by entertaining others. Adults 50c.

entertaining others. Adults 50c, children 25c. Tickets can be procured in advance at the Guide-Advocate office Canadian girls who become the wives of American citizens must now obtain their own naturalization pap-ers if they wish to enjoy the rights of American citizenship. Up to September 22 of this year marriage

Mr. Lloyd Hall of Thedford visit-

Mr. Lloyd Hall of Thedford visit-ed a few days at his old home on the second line of Warwick. Mr. Jay Kitchen, Port Dover, spent a few days this week at the home of Mr. I. J. Kadey. A number from Watford and vicin-ity attended the fowl supper at West-Adelaide on Thursday evening. Mr. John White, Postmaster of Swift Current, Sask., spent the week end with the Watsons', Wisbeach. Alex. Bryce, Sixth line, had a very successful sale of his farm stock and implements on Wednesday. He is giving up farming. Mrs. C.E. Stewart of Forest spent the weekend with her daughter, Mrs. C.E. Lester and her son, Mr. J.W. Stewart, second hine.

WARWICK

Sheetings in 30 yard and 60 yard ends, the price of this line has advanced, we have a big stock at old when the second condition.

BORN

.

In Sarnia on Tuesday, September 26, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Scarrow, 185½ Davis street, (nee Stella McMacken) a daughter, Darothy Jeannes Dorothy Jeanne.

MARRIED

MARRIED At the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pratt, con. 4. Brooke, on Wednesday, Octo-ber 4, when their daughter, Gladys' Victoria became the bride of Mr. Leslie Earl McNally.

SCHOOL REPORTS

The following is a report of Union S.S. Ng. 1 and 13, Brooke and War-wick, for the month of September. Names in order of merit. Class IV Sr.-Earl Gilliland, Christena Ruth, Deach, McMeil Class Construction Sr.—Earl Gilliland, Christena Ruth, Phoebe McNeil. Clare Cran. Class IV Jr.—John Cran. Gerrard Cowan, Mary Gilliland, Earl Davidson. Class III Sr.—Vera Edgar, Jessie Woods (absent). Class III Jr.—Gordon Gilliland, Graham Woods (absent). Class II—John Ruth, Harold Edgar, Alex. Gilliland, Irene Gilliland, John McNeil. Primer Class—Keith Cowan and Gertrude Gälliland (equal).— Norval J. Woods, Teacher.

$300. The sugar beet crop in Kent, ac-cording to the latest reports, is be-low the average this year. The dry weather was a great dawback, and it is stated that the blight hit the crop out the best exhibit of all was the children themselves, eager, interested anxious, but happy and all alive. Our county has an untold fortune in its boys and girls ureparing in its rural and urban schools to be men and women of tomorrow. Edward Broad, one of Bothwell's most progressive gardeners, has successfully raised two crops from his garden this year. The first crop of potatoes was exceptionally fine, and after harvesting the potatoes Mr.

potatoes was exceptionally fine, and after harvesting the potatoes Mr. Broad planted sweet corn, and the result is local residents are enjoying fine ears of corn at their tables a month longer than usual. Masons of Sarnia presented Robert Kerr, president of the Masonic Hall. Ltd., with a solid gold Waltham watch as a mark of apprecidion for his earnest efforts in behalf of the welfare of the organization. The presentation took place in the cham-ber of commerce building, following the monthly directors' meeting. Mr. Kerr has been treasurer of Victoria lodge for 27 years, and has filled every office in the Masonic blue lodge, chapter 'and preceptory. Fire on Thursday completely de-stroyed the fine barns and implement buildings of Wm. C. Franks, con. 3. Aldborough, together with all the contents. The lors, which will reach $10,000, is partly covered by insur-ance. The blaze broke out in the loft where a crop of beans was stored, and it is believed that the fire was caused by combustion in the beans. Over 1,000 bushels of grain were destroyed, together with farm implements which had hear stored in were destroyed, together with farm implements which had been stored in the barn.

Elo Donnie B. Hazel D. Sloppast														1	1	1
Donnie B.														2	2	2
Hazel D.														3	4	4
Sloppast				4	1					÷	1	i.	1	4	3	3
Best time	э.	2	2	2	4	1/	1			1						7
	976							2	97

Free-For-All

MUSINGS

The girl who lied about her age when she married for money was merely taking advantage of the cash discount.

About the only thing a flivver can't do is get its tail over the lines. For every girl who jumps out of an automobile at midnight, ten ought to but don't to but don't.

The philosophers say that woman is a delusion. But even a philosopher has been known to hug a delusion.

Until we began to read the health and beauty columns we never real-ized that all girls have clogged pores.