cle on trade relations between the U.

People of the republic:

"The action taken by the Illinois Manufacturers' Association Tuesday evening in adopting resolutions calling for reciprocity with Canada as well as with Cuna presents another significant warning which the devotees of high protection would do well to consider. The illinois Manufacturers' Association will hardly be accused of partisanship or of being lacking in regard for business interests.

—A large assortment of new corsets opened this week at J. W. Beckwith's.

—About twenty-five of the Italians who have been working on the M. & V. B. Ry. have been removed to points farther east. Over three miles from the station east is ready for the ties.

—A fine lot of cleaned currants, raisins and citron, received. people of the republic:

tions with Canada this country has followed the narrow and stortisighted theory that the American producer need not particularly mind the restriction of trade between the two countries as long as a protective tartiff wall eliminates Canada from the field of competition. Neither the welfare of the American consumer nor the ultimate self-interest of the producer has been considered as weighing against the opportunity to make immediate gains under protective schedules. It is unquestionably true that the effect of the tariff has been to keep Canadian goods out of the market while Canada still remains a liberal buyer of our exports. But as Mr. Charlon, a member of the Canadian parliament, pointed out in his speech before the Manufacturers' Association, before the Manufacturers' Association, before the Manufacturers' Association, contained to the severe illness from brain trouble of Miss Alice Cunninghau, the baker.

—Dr. Armstrong's garden, which has been a source of great pleasure not only to himself, but many of his friends this season, is still yielding blossoms of the beautiful Shirley poppy, whose cheerful hues are especially appreciated at this dull season.

—A few dozen self sealing jers left at Shipley's.

—Now is the time to purchase that triction of trade between the two owing to the severe illness from brain these conditions will not be allowed to continue indefinitely. "Either the tariff wall of the United States will be materially lowered or the Canadian wall will be much higher.: The Canadians will retaliate and the reasons impelling them to undertake retaliation are arranged from the continuous continuous and the reasons impelling them to undertake retaliation are arranged from the continuous continuous are arranged from the continuous area.

"Canada finds itself deprived, as a "Canada finds itself deprived, as a fixed policy, of the opportunity to enter into tair trading relations with the nation with which naturally and logically, it should deal most freely. If these conditions are maintained, it will close the door to this country and turn to Great Britain for its trade and its markets, availing itself of the scheme of preferential and retaliatory tariffs which the British government now proposes to adopt."
