

Her name is Love ; 'tis very plain
She shuns the sharper teacher, Pain.

Or, so I sometimes think ; and then
At other times they meet and kiss,
And look so strangely like, that I
Am puzzled to tell how it is,
Or whence the charge which makes it vain
To guess if it be—Love or Pain.

They tell me if I study well
And learn my lessons, I shall be
Moved upward to that higher class
Where dear Love teaches constantly ;
And I work hard, in hopes to gain
Reward, and get away from Pain.

Yet Pain is sometimes kind, and helps
Me on when I am very dull ;
I thank him often in my heart ;
But Love is far more beautiful ;
Under her tender, gentle reign
I must learn faster than of Pain.

So I will do my very best,
Nor chide the clock, nor call it slow ;
That when the Teacher calls me up
To see if I am fit to go,
I may to Love's high class attain,
And bid a sweet good-bye to Pain
