TROTTING AT BOCHESTEB, N. Y.

From the Suspension Bridge Journal wo take the fellowing.

Geo. E. Breek's stables attached to the Western Hotel are built in the form of an L. with a driveway between the wings. There are six b x stalls, and quite a number of ordinary stalls, besides an office or sleeping room. The barn is a model one, and is kept room. perfectly neat and clean -it is undoubtedly the best herse stable in Western New York.

The stalls are occupied by a number of first class horses, and we will notice them in detail, premising that the whole are under the efficient supervision of the crack rems-

No. 2 is the young and powerful stallion Niagara, out of Niagara Chief. He is 16 hands high, four years old, of a chestnut col-our, and though but fairly broken, gives undeniable evidence of speed and bottom. He is own brother to Curt Root's Phenomenon, and his sire was also the sire of Lady Whit-man, Tom Collins, and oth r noted fly rs. He will not be put on the torf for two years yet. His owners are Ben Flagler and Ed. Terrill.

No. 8 is Jessie P, also out of Ningara Chief, and like all that horse's get, is decidedly fast. She was sold to a Boston party for $1,000 and is kept here in training. She is four years old, and a favorite with her owners. No. 4 is the brown gelding W. H. Brown-lee, 7 years old, 16 hands and one inch high. He is owned by W. F. Robertson, and is out of Pelham Tartar by Toronto Chief. He is in training, very spe dy, and may go in the Fall Races.

No. 5 is the Geo. E., a bay four year's old gelding, out of Granting Clark. He is but just broken for team, and shows such evidences of speed that Jerry predicts that he will develop into the fastest horse in Ningara county.

No. 6 is old Blue-bird, who has were many a race for "the boys," and who leeks as fine as silk this Spring. He makes a countal driving horse, and is very useful in trausing, the younger horses to drive double. It is worth while to visit Mr Brock's stables and take a look at the flyers and their keepers.

GRAND LIVE STOCK SALE.

keen excitement and high bidding—an $15,000 HEITER. The sale of horses, short-horn cattle, sheep,

The sale of horses, short-horn cattle, sheep, and pigs belonging to Messrs. Simon Scattie, Wm. M. Beattie, Wm. M. Miller, of Waitsvale, Ont., and Hon. Mr. H. Cochrane. of Compton, Que., which took place at the Crystal Palaco grounds on Wednesday, was one of the hugest dimensions ever known in Canads, and succeeded in attracting visitors not only from all parts of the Dominion, but a large number from distant localities in the United Stries. The attendance throughout the whole day was good, there being at one time no less than from four there being at one time no less than from four to six hundred persons on the ground, and during the afternoon several fadies in carriages were to be seen taking a lively faterest in the progress of the sale. When Mr. L. P. Muir, the auctioneer, of Paris, Ky., ascended the platform. (Mr. J. R. Page, of Senuett, N. Y., the intended auctioneer, though present, heing temporarily in-valided from duty), the competition was rather slow; but towards the iniddle of the day, and especially when the superior short-horn estile were brought forward the bidding was charac-terized by remarkable exgerness and promptness. terized by remarkable experiess and prohibities, the excitement at times running to a considerable height. The almost incredible bid of $15,000 by Mr. Murphy, of Port Huron, Michigan, for Senator Cochrane's splendid soven months old heifer, Airdrie Duchers, clicited a burst of choors from the ring, and more than one countryment. whose ordinary experiences seldom reach beyond an animal worth aixty dollars, was heard to exclaim somethine like, "Gracious me! What a trifle of a beast to give wo many dollars for!" The catalogue was almost got through by four o'clock, the exertions of the auctioneer having told as much on the financial success of the sale as on his own speaking apparatus.

The fine trotting stellion, Fancy Golddust. died last week of inflammation of the brain. He was bred and owned by L. L. Dorsey, Eden Stock Farm, Jefferson county, Ky. Mr. D. lind refused $10,000 for him.
