THE ALMA MATER SOCIETY.

To the Alumni of the Presbyterian College, Montreal:

BRETHREN,—

OWING to the present inefficient condition of the Alma Mater Society, it is believed by some that a revised and amended constitution which would broaden the basis of membership and introduce some new features into the work, might aid in arousing more interest in the Society, in making it a greater power in perpetuating the bond of fraternal union among its members, and in promoting a loyal support of the College.

For the past two years the Society has had to withdraw its scholarship for Oriental Languages because of inadequate support from its members, and at present it seems to have little reason for existing, other than to give a banquet and elect three members of the Senatus Academicus. It is felt that the members of the Faculty, Board of Management and Senate should be more closely identified with this Society and take an active part in its proceedings, that after graduating the Alumni may feel they have an Association and a work in common with their Professors and Governors.

Notice is now given that at the annual meeting of the Alma Mater Society to be held in April the following revised and amended constitution and by-laws will be moved for adoption by the Society.

CONSTITUTION.

I. This Society shall be called the Alumni Association of the Presbyterian College, Montreal.

II. The object of the Association shall be to further among the Alumni a spirit of loyal attachment to the college, to promote its welfare by such means as may be devised from time to time and to perpetuate the bond of union among its members.

III. All who have been students of theology in the College and have maintained a good reputation, and students in the graduating class shall be members of this Association.

IV. Professors, Lecturers, the Board of Management, and Senate of the College shall be regarded ex-officio members of the Association.

V. The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, Secretary-Treasurer, a Necrologist and a Bibliographer, who,
