BREADSTUFFS.

Breadstuffs were very quiet until the beginning of this week, when in responso to American markets our Canadian markets began to move up a bit, and from the late decline there is a perceptible advance of five, ten, and in some instances fifteen cents. There has been a very active movement in trade the last two or three days, and it looks as though we have seen the lowest prices for this full, and perhaps for the whole of the crop year.

We don't know of anything special to note in anything, prices here remain about steady all round.
