

DIKE'S ELIXIR

of Lactinated Pepsin

Is an ideal combination of the Digestive enzymes, so proportioned as to give the most effective results.

The Physician has too often learned to regard digestive elixirs as little better than a flavoring vehicle, but in Dike's Elixir he will find

An Efficient Digestive

Seventy-five percent of the cases encountered are of the "Starchy" type and due regard has been given the amylolytic content.

A trial of Dike's Elixir will convince one of its superiority
