PROSPECTUS FOR 1872.

Fifth Year.

REPRESENTATIVE AND CHAMPION OF AMERICAN ART.

THE ALDINE:

AN ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY JOURNAL

claimed to be the HANDSOMERT PAPER IN THE WORLD.

"Give my love to the artist working of THE ALDINE who are striving to make their profession worthy of admination for beauty, as thus always been for usofulness."—Henry Ward Beecher.

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has hone of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light, und graceful literature and a collection of pictures, the rarest specimens, of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeding number affords a fresh pleasure to tts friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness as compared rivals of a similar class, THE ALDINE is a unique and original conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition or in price or character. The possessor of the volume uset completed cannot duplicate the quantity of fine paper and engravings in any other shape or number of volumes for ten times its cost.

The labor of gotting THE ALDINE ready on the press is so great that reprinting is out of the question. With the exception of a small number specially reserved for binding, the edition of 1871 is already exhausted and it is now a scarce as well as valuable book.

New Features for 1872.—Art Department.

The enthusiastic support so readily accorded to their enterprise, wherever it has been introduced has convinced the publishers of THE ALDINE of the soundness of their theory that the American public would recognize and heartly support any sincere effort to elevate the tone and standing of illustrated puplications. That so many weekly wicked shoots exist and thrive is no evidence that there is no market for anything better—indeed the success of THE ALDINE from the start is direct proof of the contrary. With a population so vast, and of such varied taste, a publisher can choose his patrons, and his paper is rather indicative of his own than of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the country of the condition of the taste of the country. As a guarantee of the country would beg to announce during the coming year, specimens from the following ominent American Artists.

W. T. Richerbs, Grany Perkins,

GRANY. PERRINS, F. O. C. DARLEY, VICTOR NUHLIG, WM. H. WILCON, JAMES H. BEARD, R. E. PIGUET, PAUL DIXON,

The pictures are being reproduced without regard to expense by the very best engravers in the country, and will bear the very severest critical comparison with the best foreign work, it being the determination of the publishers that THE ALDINE shall be a successful vindication of American taste in competition with any existing publication in the world.

LITERARY DEPARTMENT.

Where so much attention is paid to illustration any get up of the work, to much dependence on appearances may very maturally be feared. To anticipate such misgivings, is only necessary to state that the editorial management of THE ALDINE has been intrusted to Mr. Richard Honry Stoddart, who has received assurances of assistance from a host of the most popula. writers and poets of the country

PRESBYTERIAN QUARTERLY FOR 1872

Among the fruits of the reunion of the Prespyterian Church, we are happy to announce the con-solidation of the American Presbyterian and the Prince on Review, under the joint and equal control of DRS. H. B. SMITH and L. H. ATWATER, and with

THE PRESBYTERIAN QUARTERLY AND PRINCETON REVIEW.

AND PRINCETON REVIEW.

The purpose is not to merge the two Reviews in one, different from both, but units them in one which shall combine the distinguishing merits and characteristics to both the former ones. The friends of each, while losing nothing of either, will gain the advantages of both. Each editor retains the same liberty as hitherto of edvocating, of allowing to be advocated, whatever, in his judgment, is entitled to a hearing. The editorial, literary, and fiscal resources of both are combined. Enlisting the whole range of the contributors to both Reviews, wish important additional aid, we may readily secure a higher average grade, with an increase in variety and quantity of the contents. By enlarging the size to 300 pages, or 800 pages a year, we shall be able to enrich the Review with choice selections from the British and Continental periodicals. Thus more may be gained by the union than could have been given by both apart. "We have come together," say the Editors, "yielding to a desire widely cherished and often expressed; and we confidently appeal to our ministers, olders, and church members, and to the friends of evangelical religion and of an elevated Christian literature, to give us a hearty support, and enable us to make a review that shall meet all the wants of our great Presbyterian Church, and be a worthy representative of it."

The JANUARY number contains twelve articles, from such writers as Profs. Alken, Schaff and Thomas, of Princeton, Union and Lane Seminas as Taylor Lewis, Dr. Herrick Johnson, the Editors, and other writers of ability.

TERMS.—One subscription, $3.50, or two for $6. To ministers, whose makery is but $1,000 for $2, or two years for $5. Where the salary is but $70, er 180, it is put at the meaning price of $3, we keing it writish reach of all our pastors. Address
