

The Copp, Clark Co.'s New Books.

Richard Yea-and-Nay

By Maurice Hewlett

Who wrote "The Forest Lovers."

A strong and tender love story, with Richard Cœur de Lion as hero.

"A story which stands by itself in English fiction."—The Outlook.

"The only first-class novel of 1900."—London Academy.

Cloth, $1.25.

Paper edition, now ready, 75c.

Tommy and Grizel

By J. M. Barrie

A sequel to "Sentimental Tommy."

"A wonderfully delicate and pathetic piece of fiction."—Canadian Magazine.

"So complete an analysis of a mere man has never been made since the days of George Eliot."—Mudge Robertson in Victoria Times.

Cloth, $1.25.

Paper, 75c.

In the Palace of the King

By Marion Crawford

"An admirable piece of story telling—dramatic, picturesque, and deeply interesting."—The Outlook.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper edition, now ready, 75c.

The Heart of the Ancient Wood

By Charles G. D. Roberts

"One of the most fascinating novels of recent days."—Boston Herald.

"The most charming thing he has done."—Brooklyn Standard Union.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

The Hosts of the Lord

By Mrs. Flora Annie Steel

"Emphasized by the charm of oriental manners and picturesqueness, the story is deeply interesting."—The Outlook.

Cloth, $1.25. Paper, 75c.

The Duke

By J. Storer Clouston

Author of "The Lunatic at Large."

A clever society novel.

Cloth, $1.00

Paper, 75c.

One of Ourselves

By L. B. Walford

A novel of universal interest. Something new in the story line.

Cloth, $1.00.

Paper, 75c.

Lord Linlithgow

By Morley Roberts

Delightful glimpses of London society through the medium of romance.

Cloth, $1.00. Paper, 75c.

At all booksellers, or sent postpaid on receipt of price by
The Copp, Clark Co., Limited, Publishers, Toronto