"We did not have a single Dollar's worth of Real Estate on our hands, Or a single Dollar of Interest in Arrears."

The foregoing was the pleasing and important statement contained in the Annual Report of

The Temperance and General Life Assurance Company for the year ending Dec. 31st, 1894.

It is but a sample of the many excellent features contained in this most satisfactory report, which, with a copy of the Company's paper, entitled "Our Advocate," is being sent to all applicants.

Correspondence Solicited.
