From the British Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs to the Danish Minister at London.

FOREIGN OFFICE,

October 10, 1935.

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your note of to-day informing me that the Government of Iceland desire that the Anglo-Icelandic Convention signed in London on the 28th June, 1926, and last renewed by Exchange of Notes (December 31, 1931, and January 3, 1932) on the 4th May, 1931, should be renewed for a further period of five years to date from the 4th May, 1936.

2. In reply, I have the honour to inform you that His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland agree that the said Arbitration Convention of 1926 shall be regarded as having been renewed for a period of five years to date from the 4th May, 1936, in respect of the United Kingdom, Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia and New Zealand.

3. It will be understood that in place of reference to the Permanent Court of Arbitration, as provided for in Articles 1 and 2 of the aforesaid Convention of the 28th October, 1926, the reference shall, in any case arising, be made to the Permanent Court of International Justice in accordance with the procedure laid down in the Statutes of that Court adopted thereunder.

4. The present note and your note to which I have the honour to reply will be regarded as constituting a formal agreement to the above effect between His Majesty's Governments in the United Kingdom, Canada, the Commonwealth of Australia, and New Zealand, on the one hand, and the Government of Iceland on the other.

I have, etc.

SAMUEL HOARE.
