 Park was taken by the Ministry of the Far North... and the State Planning Commission of the RSFSR. The RSFSR Ministry of Forestry has been entrusted with the task of planning and carrying out the work on the territory during the period 1991-1992 and carrying out and working out the regime of management. In this way, yet another corner of primordial nature will be preserved and people will be able to enjoy for centuries the unique riches of the White Sea Coast.

New National Park in the White Sea Littoral

The "White Sea National Park" - display boards announcing this will appear in the coastal forests on the White Sea which washes the Murmansk Oblast. The first national park on the Kola Peninsula is a great gift for the local inhabitants. They have long and justly argued at all levels the natural beauty of this corner of the Far North.

The Far East coast is a unique place where there are many natural and cultural monuments. In picturesque bays and fjords, and in the bright blue waters of the sea, there are wild nature, as well as a rich and diverse fauna, including gulls, terns, and other birds. The area is also rich in mineral resources, and the deposits of various metals and minerals are being actively explored.
