Minister Day to Address Diplomatic Forum

The Honourable Stockwell Day, Minister of International Trade and Minister for the Asia-Pacific Gateway, will travel to Quebec City, Quebec, on December 17, 2008, to deliver a speech to the Diplomatic Forum on Canada's trade policy priorities and objectives.

The Diplomatic Forum is an annual event organized by Foreign Affairs and International Trade Canada. It brings together foreign and Commonwealth heads of diplomatic missions who are accredited to Canada. The Diplomatic Forum is intended to provide heads of mission with a series of briefings on current Canadian public policy issues that will assist them in understanding and interpreting Canada and Canadians for their respective nations.
