

the house has been passed, and the new department has been established, he will then propose further legislation—and he has indicated this would be in the present session of parliament—delineating those areas which would be described, I think, under the legislation now before us, as special areas or special incentive areas. The basic purpose of these changes would be to increase the effectiveness of the incentives used to attract new industries in disadvantaged areas and to

Proceedings on Adjournment Motion stimulate the expansion and modernization of existing industries in these areas.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order.

Mr. Honey: So, I can only ask the hon. member to wait until this legislation is approved.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: Order, please.

Motion agreed to, and the house adjourned at 10.27 p.m.
