Dear Sir Arthur

It is a long time since I wrote to you from Campbell River, enclosing my letter to the Press re the lack of a real War Memorial in Victoria. You were most sympathetic in your reply & so I am sending you some verses of mine on "Disarmament", etc which will I hope interest you. The Cartoon also is my work; verses written about Memorial service & published on Nov 11. (I am living here once more) and the words I suggested to be placed on the Memorial to Victoria's "Dead"; the latter a word I detest.
