

nations, well received in all circles, respected by all, rich and poor. A short time since, a man of wealth and influence meeting him said,—

“ Good morning, Mr. Sunners; how are you getting on now ?”

Sunners replied, “ I have just been singing, sir,

‘ My God, I am thine, what a comfort divine,
What a blessing to know that my Jesus is mine ;
In the heavenly Lamb thrice blessed I am,
And my heart it does dance at the sound of his name.’

That is what I have been singing. Glory, glory ! I wish every rich man in Liverpool was as happy as I am.”

Well may such a man be called HAPPY NED.
