

---

THIS Pamphlet is written in the belief that it will find readers in the Dominion patriotic and intelligent enough to recognize the superior claims of the country to those of any party. As they know that opinions, to be worth anything, must find their justification in facts, no explanation is needed for the prominence given to certain statistics which are somewhat humiliating to Canada.

WM. WILSON,

September, 1874.

VICTORIA, B. C.