

AZTEC LANGUAGE.

25 photographic plates
(see text).

Ciudad de Tlaxcala, Francisco de Lorenzana de Año de 1718. Con una de S. Leon Reliquia.

his "Catalogo de escritores 1866," p. 107, No. 102, gives the history of Tlaxcala very what is occasionally brief.
Mexico by Clavigero, Loren-of a manuscript representing of outline is therefore all the originally written in Spanish, the title of the manuscript Lorenzana translated the work only in order to make it ac-We need not take the loss of it, the Aztec is much the more valuable, for, in it is a most interesting first profane text in the print, as all the Aztec texts editors of literature, such as and all the others, poor using themselves with the also, is contained in a large Bosquet, as relations & le archives of Mexico. The was done, at the expense Mexican Government Inter-take the original accessible the Editor has had the and will be issued with the 1866, No. 21, 12.

ERNOSTER ROW.

about 700 pages.

obra escrita a no de Mendota. La fechada.

Row, LONDON.

Me