

morial to their much-lamented minister, in such manner and of such a character as would be most acceptable to his lordship and to Mrs. Mountain. A memorial is also about to be placed in the chapel of Eton College.

Thus fell asleep one who exhibited a noble pattern of the Missionary of the Cross; who, in a short time, fulfilled many labours worthy of the best days of the history of the Gospel; whose work was cut off in the midst of his years, but whose memory still ministers before God, in drawing heavenwards the affections and aims of many hearts that had learnt to love him for his own and for his work's sake.
