and true Journal of the Cruize from the time of the said Privateer's sailing from the Port of Bermuda to her arrival at the Port of Halifax."

Then this rough record of the Lawrence's voyage was laid away in the provincial archives for a century and a half. Of the hundred men who trod her decks, and worked her in fair weather and foul, and stood to her guns, each with his own history and passions and hopes, if only for a fair run and plenty of prize money, only this frail memorial remains,—of interest to none but the curious antiquary.
