SYLVIA PANKHURST IS AN INSURGENT

Leaves Women's Political Union Because it is Too Conservative

POWER IS WANING

Pankhurstism is Apparently Soon to Lose Its Autocratic Sway.

LONDON, Feb. 6.—Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, daughter of the militant suffragette leader, today announced her secession from the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant women's organization. Her east end of London federation, which the leaders of the Women's Social and Political Union are beginning to believe are damaging their cause.

Christabel Pankhurst, who has been the chief of the militant suffragettes, is said to be due to Miss Sylvia Pankhurst's ultra-revolutionary aspirations, which the leaders of the Women's Social and Political Union are beginning to believe are damaging their cause.

Reports of dissensions in the inner circles of the militant organization, involving the Pankhursts, have been in circulation for some time. According to these, Christabel Pankhurst is anxious to end her long exile in Paris and return to her home in London, and take control of the organization, which she is doubtful if her mother, Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, who is still in Switzerland, will be well enough for some months to resume her arduous duties of commander-in-chief.

But Christabel, the reports have it, desires to come back under conditions that will not necessitate frequent terms of imprisonment for her under the "cat and mouse" act. Therefore it is said, she wants militant action, which she understands she has the support of many of the older members of the organization, who believe that while militancy has accomplished the purpose of winning the suffrage question to the front, the continuance of militant tactics will be injurious to the cause.

Sylvia Pankhurst, on the other hand, is not prepared to abandon militancy until she has fully tested the fighting capacity of her "people's army," which she organized in the east end of London, and with which she is credited as believing she can start a revolution which will force the government to enfranchise women.

Several of the younger and more ambitious members of the women's social and political union view with unqualified satisfaction the Pankhurst feud, believing that it will end the autocratic sway of the Pankhursts and give more mature statesmen, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Pethick Lawrence were driven out of it last year.

SARNIA MAY CELEBRATE THE PEACE CENTENARY

Proposed Acquisition of Stag Island for Natural Park—Couple Deported.

(Special to The Toronto World) SARNIA, Feb. 6.—The Canadian Pacific Centennial Society has written the town asking that the celebration of the hundred years of peace be observed here in 1915. The matter will be given consideration, and the feeling among the citizens is that the celebration would be a good thing, especially if the government purchases Stag Island for a national peace park. If the celebration plans are prepared, Port Huron will be asked to participate.

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS MAKE WOMEN WELL

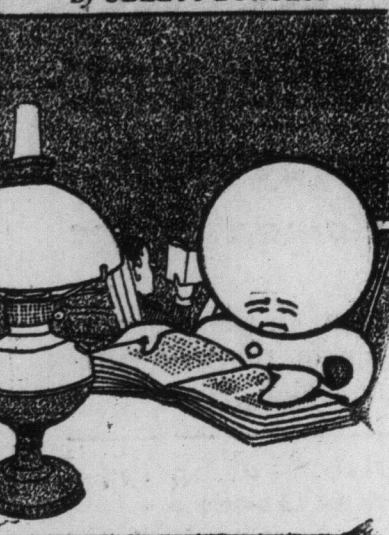

Just because she is a woman, there are times when every woman needs help and strength in the form of a blood-building tonic.

To thousands of girls and women Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved a blessing, because they enrich the blood, give strength and restore tone to the aching nerves. The anaemic girl who is languid and pale, the wife whose back feels like breaking, the mother whose health fails as she reaches middle age—all for such sufferers, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are invaluable, because ill health in women is usually caused by poor blood or insufficient blood. These pills have cured thousands of others, why not you? Mrs. D. Morine Wallbrook, N. S., says: "It is impossible for me to say too much in praise of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I have had a great sufferer from those troubles that make the life of so many women an almost constant misery. Pains in the back and side racked and tortured me. My nerves seemed to give out, and at times I could do no house work, and only women who have similarly suffered know what I found an improvement, and as I continued their use my health and strength returned, and I now feel as well as ever I did in my life, and I am relating my experience merely in the hope that it may lead some other suffering woman to renewed health. I may add that my mother suffered from rheumatism, so badly that she had to use a crutch and Dr. Williams' Pink Pills completely restored her to her usual good health.

Always get the genuine pills with the full name "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People," on the wrapper around each box. If your dealer does not keep them, the pills will be sent post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50, by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

SAFETY LEAGUE AT WORK.

Educational Campaign Begun. Will Cut Down Street Accidents.

With a view toward instilling into the mind of the public at large the necessity for caution upon the streets the Ontario Safety League is now waging an educational campaign, and the safety principles laid down are excellent. The bulk of our traffic accidents are largely due to carelessness, and it is felt that a course of lectures, press notices and general publicity will go a long way toward showing the public that accidents can be prevented, and that the conservation of life and limb is a matter that appeals to every man, woman and child. The movement deals with the dangers that are real, and the need for correction is vital.

The whole plan must interest everyone, and there is no doubt that the work will make a lasting impression upon the children, and the benefits that will accrue from precautionary measures will extend through life. People more mature years also need instruction in the safety habit, and it is hoped that 1914 will show fewer accidents than 1913, in spite of increased population.

JENNY LIND

The Swedish Nightingale of the World's Song Music.

It was Jenny Lind, the Swedish nightingale, who was the first to strike the popular chord with the world-wide favorite melody, "Home, Sweet Home." She was a little country girl in Sweden, and was nine years old when she attracted the notice of an actress, who sent her to the Conservatory of Music at Stockholm. At the age of ten she sang before the royal court, and later made her debut as Agatha in "Der Freischütz." Strange to say, she made a partial failure in Paris, which was followed by an enthusiastic reception in Berlin, Vienna and London. After her first triumphal tour of the provinces she distributed large sums in charity, as she did all during her long and notable life. Her engagement in the United States was made under the management of the circus man, Phineas T. Barnum, who paid her $300,000 for one season. She married Otto Goldschmidt of Hamburg, who for many years played her accompaniments. "Home, Sweet Home" is scarcely ever sung in public that it does not recall the memory of Jenny Lind, the singer whose golden notes will never be forgotten.

"Home, Sweet Home," as sung by Jenny Lind, is to be found, of course, in "Heart Songs"—now being eagerly called for by so many of this paper's readers at its business office. Over four hundred songs in one volume—all of them favorites. Read the coupon elsewhere in today's issue—and own this song book treasure for yourself.

AUTOMOBILE SHOW.

Arrangements Made for Great Showing of Motorcycles.

At the automobile show, which opens Saturday, Feb. 14, at the Exhibition Park, the Toronto Motorcycle Club and other clubs will have one night, which will be called motorcycle night. More than in any previous year, the motorcycle industry will be represented this year. A large section of the transportation building has been given to the club alone, but automobiles will also be displayed there, while the whole of the horticultural building has been given to autos only.

The services of the Boston ladies' orchestra have been secured, and under the direction of Miss Tracy, some splendid music will be rendered, both in the afternoon and evening. A refreshment booth and tea room are being arranged, and nothing is being neglected to assure comfort. Arrangements have been made with the Toronto Railway Company to have cars run direct to the grounds, and this will obviate the necessity of transferring and make the trip to the show more pleasant than formerly.

GROWING SHADE TREES ON PAVED SIDEWALKS

The problem of growing shade trees on paved sidewalks is reported by Commercial Agent Thompson to have been solved in Ghent, Belgium. Paving close up results in the early death of the tree from the cutting off of surface water, and leaving an unpaved circular space is unsightly and often dangerous to pedestrians.

By the new plan a space of two feet is left all around the tree. The paving is carried up smoothly to a flush iron ring, and on the inside of this a recess receives a sectional removable grating flush with the sidewalk. The outer rings make the tree stand on a raised platform, and gratings having several different central apertures, so that one may be selected to fit fairly close to any tree.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL

DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER.

WHAT TO HAVE FOR DINNER

THIS is the season when cooks look most eager for new ways of cooking the foods that everyone has tired of during the winter. The following tested, simple recipes are compiled with the hope that they will be "a little different."

Steamed Brown Bread—Two cups of Graham flour, one cup of wheat flour, one cup nut meats and raisins, one teaspoon of soda, one of salt and one of baking powder. Half a cup of molasses and a cup and a half of sour milk. Steam in small molds or cans.

Vegetable Croquettes—Chop any cold vegetables together except potatoes, season and mix with thick cream sauce. Shape, cool and egg and crumb and fry in deep fat.

Canned Corn and Tomatoes—Add onion, parsley, salt and pepper to canned tomatoes and stew until the liquor is evaporated. Press thru a sieve to remove seed and put in a buttered baking dish. Put first a layer of corn, then one of tomatoes, put buttered crumbs over top and bake brown.

Baked Porcupine—Chop any cold meat fine and add half as many rolled crackers as you have meat. Season with onion and salt and pepper. Add one beaten egg and a little water to moisten it; pat into an oval loaf and place in a loaf pan well buttered. Cut strips of bacon in such lengths and not more than a fourth of an inch wide. Push these into the meat loaf so that they stick out a little. Bake until the bacon is crisp and the loaf brown. The oven should not be too hot or the porcupine quills will scorch before the meat bakes.

English Tart Shells—These are crisp dainties designed to hold a little jam or custard, and are delicate enough for whipped cream or chocolate russe filling. Warm a tablespoon of butter and blend it with one of sugar and three of sifted flour. Beat the whites of four eggs and mix into the above. Butter a shallow baking pan or cookie sheet and gently spread a smooth layer of this mixture over it. Cut into squares with a knife. Bake in medium oven and when they begin to color draw the tin to the front of oven and with the help of a knife turn two corners together so that each square forms a triangle. Do not press together but return to oven and when they are done they will be shaped like cornucopias.

Potatoes, Winnipeg Style—Dice potatoes so that the little squares are the same size. Butter a shallow pan and enough muffin rings to fill it. Toss the diced potatoes in a little melted butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Fill the rings with them and set in oven until tender. Slip a broad knife or griddle cake turner under each ring and with a single motion turn it over. The bottom potatoes will be a crisp brown. Cook until the upper side has had time to brown, then remove from rings carefully. About forty minutes is required for this method, so the oven must be only moderately hot or they will burn on the bottom.

THE GARDEN NURSERIES

CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD, M.D.

Sleeplessness

A child who has very large tonsils, or adenoids, is likely to be a poor sleeper. He may have a feeling of suffocation at times, which will wake him out of a sound sleep, perhaps with a scream. This is often attributed to dreams, when the real cause is stopped-up breathing passages.

Children who are cutting teeth sometimes wake out of sleep in this way. The need of circumcision often causes restless nights.

There is no such thing as sleeping medicine for children. So-called harmless sleeping "medicines" are really drugs and sooner or later work injury to some part of the mind or body. I have always spoken very strongly against soothing syrups, teething powders and the like; and I sincerely hope for the benefit of the helpless little children that readers of this column will never be guilty of the sin of administering these pernicious remedies.

After you have tried all the simple means suggested here, and your baby still sleeps poorly, have him thoroughly examined by your physician, who will, with your help, discover the cause and suggest the remedy.

All through childhood a great deal of sleep is required, and some children require much more than others. During sleep a child recuperates all the expenditure of energy which has taken place during the day; so you will understand that to fail by lack of sleep to make up for that daily spending of energy will soon cause a weakening of the child's nervous force, and a general break-up of his constitution.

NOT ALL HAVE WORK.

A line of men waiting outside the Civic Employment Bureau yesterday showed that not all the unemployed men of the city had been registered, and it is possible to estimate with any degree of accuracy the number of men out of work in the city today. Already about 8000 men have registered for work.

WOMEN LISTENED TO FINE LECTURE

H. B. Ames, M.P., of Montreal, Told of Recent Trip Thru India.

MUTINY IS IMPOSSIBLE

Great Precautions Observed to Prevent Another Rising of Natives.

Yesterday afternoon at the Y.W.C. Hall, McGill street, the members of the Women's Canadian Club listened to a most picturesque lecture on the fascinating subject of India from H. B. Ames, M.P., of Montreal. This lecture was illustrated by numerous beautiful views and the material had been gathered from the experiences of the speaker during a trip thru the country described.

The lecturer took his audience thru the most interesting places along a route of three thousand miles, beginning with Bombay and including all the places such as Delhi and Cawnpore, which signify so much to the British mind.

One of the most beautiful monuments shown was the white marble mausoleum built over the wall of Cawnpore, into which during the mutiny one hundred and thirty women and children were thrown.

Another such mutiny is in the mind of Mr. Ames an impossibility owing to the precautions observed. All the artillery are now white, as are also the men in charge of the arsenals.

Even in church the British soldier holds his gun across his knee, a lesson having been learned in former years when the soldiers having pulled their arms at the entrance were set upon and destroyed.

Coins are in circulation on an average of twenty-seven years. Pains live under favorable conditions for 200 years.

WOMAN MEETS DEATH BY HAND OF ADMIRER

Mrs. Pritchard of Tillsonburg Killed in California—Murderer Suicides.

TILLSONBURG, Feb. 6.—Mrs. Lydia Pritchard, wife of Wm. Pritchard of Tillsonburg, was shot and instantly killed by an admirer in Colistoga, California, on Feb. 3. The murderer then turned the weapon upon himself and committed suicide. The unfortunate woman's 10-year-old son was a witness of the shooting.

Mrs. Pritchard had been separated from her husband for the past eight years. Recently she went to Colistoga, where she had been residing since with her brother, Martin Pearce. There she met the young man whose attentions to her had such a tragic ending. A quarrel, the origin of which is not known, arose between the couple, and led directly to the shooting. Martin Pearce brought the body home, and the funeral took place here this afternoon. No details have yet been reported here of the trial.

Mrs. Pritchard was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pearce of this town. They have a large family, and this is the first death among its fifteen members.

'Heart Songs'

In the "Heart Songs" advertisement which appeared in The World on Tuesday last, the announcement was made that the song, "Love's Old Sweet Songs," was contained in the Song Book at page 276. This song does not appear in the "Heart Songs" Book now being distributed by The World, and regret is expressed for the mistake. As we cheerfully refund money to anyone who is not perfectly satisfied with the Song Book, those who were misled by the advertisement can have their money back by returning the book to The World Office, 40 Richmond St. West, Toronto, or 15 Main St. East, Hamilton.

HEAVY LOSS SUSTAINED IN GALT FACTORY FIRE

Damages Reach Two Hundred Thousand and Hundred and Fifty Men Out.

GALT, Ont., Feb. 6.—Fire, which broke out early this morning in the Shurly Ditch Ltd. saw and beam manufacturing, gutted practically the whole plant, which covers the greater portion of a block. Only a solid brick warehouse, recently erected, remained, the rest of the building no so solidly constructed having burned like tinder. Although at one time it was thought the solid stone office would be saved, the fire got it. It is expected that the loss will reach about $200,000 and the men will be thrown out of employment.

The fire started in the tempering department and Joseph Moore, night watchman, tried for a time to fight it with a single hose of the factory department. The home of John Johnson, Galt street, caught fire and a strong stand had to be made there. All houses in the block were emptied of their furniture.
