

Blessed be the Lord daily.

And may the God of our salvation make our goings prosperous.

May the crooked ways be made straight.

And the rough places plain.

May the Lord give His Angels charge over us

To keep us in all our ways.

O Lord, hear our prayer.

And let our cry come unto Thee.

LET US PRAY.

O God, who didst lead Abraham Thy servant out of Ur of the Chaldees and preservedst him unhurt throughout the days of his pilgrimage ; we beseech Thee to take us Thy servants under Thy Almighty protection. Be unto us a Helper in our expedition, our Solace by the way, our Shadow in the heat, our Covering in the storm, our Comfort in the cold, our Support in weariness, our Guardian in danger, our Staff in slippery places, and our Physician in sickness, so that Thou being from first to last our Ruler and Guide, we may begin, continue, and end this our present undertaking in safety, returning to our homes in peace and joy, and when all our mortal pilgrimage is over may we share the joys and peace of Thy Heavenly Home ; through the grace and love of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

After which, all standing up, shall be said :

WE PRAISE THEE, O GOD ; we acknowledge Thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship Thee : the Father everlasting.

To Thee all Angels cry aloud : the heavens and all the powers therein.
