

while there. And such Masters as shall be compelled to take shelter therein by stress of weather or other causes of necessity, without giving such previous notice, shall as early as may be give information thereof to the said Officer.

6th. That all ships and vessels arriving from sea, or not having such licence as aforesaid entering and remaining in the Cul de Sac for the purposes of loading and unloading shall be subject to the wharfage of six pence currency per ton loading and unloading, and two shillings and six pence like money per day from the day of their entering the Cul de Sac to the day of their departure therefrom, inclusive.

7th. That the Masters or owners of ships or vessels of every description who intend to repair the same in the Cul de Sac shall first obtain permission from the officer acting under the authority of this Corporation for that purpose.

8th. That ships or vessels obtaining this permission shall be subject to pay Dock dues, (river craft as aforesaid excepted) videlicet, If under one hundred tons register measurement, at the rate five shillings currency per day: If not exceeding three hundred tons, at the rate of seven shillings and six pence like money per day: If above three hundred tons, ten shillings like money per day, from the time of entering the Cul de Sac to the day of their departure therefrom inclusive, and exclusive of the tonnage dues for loading or unloading if any cargo is received or discharged.

9th. That such ships or vessels, not being licenced as aforesaid, as shall winter in the Cul de Sac shall be subject to pay one shilling currency per ton register measurement, exclusive of time and tonnage in loading unloading or repairing.

10th. That materials which appear necessary for ships or vessels under repair, may be brought into the Cul de Sac, but such of them as are not made use of, shall be forthwith removed after such ships or vessels shall be repaired.

11th. That every ship or vessel in the Cul de Sac not under repair nor in the act of loading or unloading, shall be obliged to give way and make room for others, that may enter for any of these purposes, by removing to another part of the Cul de Sac, or by going out thereof as the officer appointed therefor shall direct.

And whereas the said last recited Act has reserved His Majesty's rights except as therein specially mentioned, with the restriction on this Corporation that they