

- Cambridge Platform, fall, 206; some results, 214.
- Canada, early explorations, 5, 7; early attempt at settlement, 6; Cartier's explorations, 13-22; first use of name, 15; Roberval's attempted colony, 22-24, 29-32; fur-trade monopoly, 36-38, 49, 57, 59, 60; Champlain's first voyage, 42; change in Indian inhabitants, 42-44; Champlain's second voyage, 60; first settlement, 60; beginnings of Indian policy, 62-65, 70, 71; Indian missionaries, 86, 89, 103; rivalry of interests, 88; Richelieu's measures for settlement, 90; religious uniformity required, 91; captured by the English in 1628, 91; restored to France, 92; inland explorations, 98-101, 106; interest of Louis XIV., 101; policy of development, 104; route to the interior, 104; possession taken of the Northwest, 107-109. La Salle's expedition to the io, 111-115; exploration of the Mississippi, 117-120; scheme for empire in the Mississippi valley, 120-122, 132; Louisiana added to French possessions, 130; irrepressible conflict with English colonies, 233, 239; importance of Kennebec River to, 234; policy against English settlements, 239, 241; loss of the control of the Kennebec, 244; loss of Louisbourg in 1745, 249-256; development of scheme of empire, 258; menace in the English advance into the Ohio valley, 261, 264; decline of influence over the Indians, 261-264; possession and occupation of Ohio valley, 264-273; restored control of the interior, 309; strategic points, 326; Pitt resolves to destroy, 342; English conquer, 358. See also
- Acadia, French and Indian War, Newfoundland.
- Canary Islands, Béthencourt colonizes, 2.
- Caniengas, name for Mohawks, 45.
- Canseau, Nova Scotia, captured by the French, 250.
- Cape Breton, named, 4.
- Cartier, Jacques, early career, 13; first voyage, 13; second voyage, 14; explores St. Lawrence River, 14; at Stadacona, 15; visit to Hochelaga, 16-20; winter quarters at Stadacona, 20; return voyage, 21; captain-general, 22; third voyage, 23; and Roberval, 24; brings Roberval back to France, 31; death, 32.
- Caughnawaga, Canada, village of converted Iroquois, 262.
- Cavelier family, 109. See also La Salle.
- Cavelier, Jean, brother of La Salle, 110.
- Cayugas, Iroquois Indians, 45; segregated from the Onondagas, 47. See also Iroquois.
- Céloron de Bienville, takes possession of Ohio valley for France, 264-266; and La Demoiselle, 266.
- Champlain, Samuel, birth, 38; religion, 39, 59, 81; character, 39, 58, 92; in the West Indies and Mexico, 40; suggests a canal at Panama, 41; and Pontgravé, 41; first voyage to Canada, 42; on coast of New England, 52-55; purpose of the exploration, 53, 55; greeted at Port Royal, 55; his knightly Order of Good Times, 57; interest in Canada, 58; return to Canada, 60; founds Quebec, 60; puts down treason, 61; makes alliance with Algonquins and Hurons, 62-64; first expedition against the Iroquois, 65-70; great consequences, 70, 71; second encounter with the Iroquois,