

FAIRLY ACTIVE AND NO CHANGE

Market Continues in Even Mood
—Large Number of Exporters—Small Stock
Steady.

For an off-market day Wednesday's live stock receipts were above the average in number and quality, with quotations holding firm on heavy stock and fairly active trading. Small stock had a tolerably fair demand, with prices varying slightly, according to quality.

A total of 262 cattle, among which were many exporters and a large number of butchers, were sold before the close. This supply of calves was short, while sheep and lambs were more plentiful. Hogs came in more plentifully than on Tuesday, with the price firm.

Exporters did not advance over Monday's prices, while butchers' steers, heifers and cows of a good average weight continued in demand. Poultry was quiet, with a demand for this class of stock.

On the whole the market was what dealers term fairly active generally and strong on the quality in demand.

At the Union Yards.

The receipts at the Union Yards were: Cows, 23; calves, 48; sheep, 2; hogs, 66.

There was a demand for the good stuff, and everything was sold at an early hour. Prices did not change, only as the quality of the offerings changed.
