

CAR NEARLY GOES OVER BRIDGE PASSENGERS GET A BAD SCARE

Repairs Under Way to Gerrard-street Bridge Leave it in a Rather Dangerous Condition—Barricade Knocked Over.

The derailing of a street car last night on the Gerrard-street bridge, the planking of which is undergoing reconstruction, was not without a fair spice of danger to the motorman, conductor and half a dozen passengers on board.

Only a single line of tracks crossing the bridge is available for use at present. The devil-strip and the south line of tracks are being replanked, and towards the east end of the bridge these planks are lying loosely in position, not having been wedged closely together and nailed down.

It was all the general manager, Hoisey, who had deceived the directors. Any other general manager of any bank in Canada can vouch for it.

Discovery of the Losses. Subsequently to the interview with Mr. Cockburn the world was informed of the exact defalcation of $1,200,000.

Think of it, he said; the Ontario Bank is allowed a bonus of a hundred and fifty thousand dollars and by a stroke of the pen the Bank of Montreal secured ten million additional deposits.

The losses are made up in the ordinary course of business, made up of old debts and losses in securities purchased on behalf of the bank.

The directors have thrown all the blame on the shoulders of the man who was fighting against government inspection for years.

The losses were made in pursuance of the bank's business. Losses were made on securities.

The Bank of Montreal is in charge of the affairs of the Ontario Bank head office, and the signs of the Old Lady of St. James-street were hung on the Ontario Bank premises on Saturday.

ing down the incline from Broadview-avenue about 8.30 p.m., rattled on to the bridge at a fair rate of speed. Then somehow or other the wheels skidded and the car plunged heavily upon the makeshift planks, butting into the barricade of heavy scantlings and toppling them over with a resounding crash.

It was seen that the car had left the tracks several feet and was lurching over towards the gap in the bridge, and congratulations were offered all round on the narrowness of the escape.

Efforts were made to move the car, and the result was that the upper planks gave way with a sudden crash the car sinking down to the level of the wheels.

A Toronto organist has been recognized as among the world's foremost in his profession.

On Saturday Arthur Ingham, who last week accepted the position of organist at Central Methodist Church, received a letter from the committee on music of the trustees of the Carnegie library at Pittsburgh.

It is explained that the duties of the position would require bi-weekly Saturday evenings and Sunday afternoon recitals during eight months of the year, from November to June, and that, during the spring months, lectures would be required.

In addition to the salary of $4000, there is eligibility for the position of organist in a prominent church at $1000 a year, which the social engagements would also prove numerous and remunerative.

The position of organist there is one of the most important in the world.

Mr. Ingham was born at Bradford, England, March 18, 1867. He studied the piano, organ and composition, under Charles Hall, W. T. Best, and Dr. W. Cresser, organist of St. James' Chapel Royal, London, England, respectively.

Mr. Ingham began his career as an organist at the age of from 12 to 14. He has been elected after fourteen years, having been elected after keen competition, organist of Eccleshill Wesleyan Church, Bradford.

He subsequently held the important position of organist and choir director of the Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Bradford, for a period of twelve years.

Mr. Ingham was invited to fill the important positions of organist and choir director of the Scottish Rite Masonic Cathedral, and of the Second Presbyterian Church, St. Louis, Mo., where he concluded a fine series of fifty organ concerts, conceded to be the most artistic ever given in the middle west.

Mr. Ingham came to Toronto in 1904, and inaugurated the new organs at the Church of the Redeemer and of the College-street Baptist Church. He is unquestionably, one of the foremost concert organists in America, and was one of the foremost organists at the St. Louis World's Fair.
