Sunday Evening July 4,

You know nothing of a rising thermometer in this store. The construction of the building is such that on the hottest summer day it is a delight to spend an hour within its walls-shop if you will, but enjoy the pleasures of one cool spot.

Growing crowds—the store always full—are the best proof of the keeping of all the promises of this store news. In a brief word we want to say that, starting this day, we inaugurate a midsummer sale that has nothing of the commonplace about it, but that will be marked throughout its every feature with money-saving qualities for the largest or smallest shoppers. Bargains—a dead easy way of saving money.
