SPAIN MOURNFULLY SUBMITT

Articles of Peace Printed With Black Borders by the Newspapers—Hostilities Suspended in Cuba and Porto Rico—Word Sent to Manila.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 13.—The War Department will ask Congress to increase the standing army even beyond its present war basis.

The whole volunteer army will disappear as soon as the President issues his final peace proclamation.

General Alger said to-day that it was the intention of the department to garrison the places named, both with regulars and volunteers.

The mustering out of soldiers still at muster grounds under the second call will begin in about fifteen days.

The next order to be issued by the Navy Department will be one placing out of commission many of the vessels ordered north yesterday by Acting Secretary Allen's cable.

SPAIN PREPARES TO EVACUATE

Instructions the Governors-General of the Colonies to Carry Out the Terms of the Protocol.

Madrid, Aug. 14.—(10 p.m.)—The Government has evening telegraphed instructions to the Governors-General of Porto Rico and the Philippines for the carrying out of the terms of the protocol signed by the United States and Spain.

The people everywhere remain quiet. The Republican Band at Valencia proved to be underserving of the importance of the authorities lent it by dispatching troops to the scene.

Official circles are most disturbed regarding the future of the Philippines. The press utterances are not worth quoting, the censorship prohibiting any but approving comments of the Government's actions.

Advices from Santiago de Cuba report that great precautions have been taken to prevent the spread of yellow fever.

Spanish papers in mourning. Their Nation Reduced to the Role of a Third-Class Power.

Madrid, Aug. 14.—(10 a.m.)—El Pais to-day prints the text of the protocol signed by the United States and Spain with mourning borders.

Spain without bringing favorably for her. "Peace will not bring to Spain even the rest she so much needs after three years and a half of war."

El Nacon says, bitterly: "If Spain had at least been vanquished only after a furious and heroic struggle, she could resign herself."

El Liberal says the article in the protocol relating to the Philippines does not indicate that anything good for Spain will be fixed upon, and the question will not be settled favorably for her.

El Globo (Ministerial) pines for peace between Spain and the United States, and says the communications on Eastern questions which Day and Cambon have signed, begin the first chapter in a new history of Europe.

El Tiempo (Conservative) says: "Peace is an accomplished fact. The bitterness of defeat does not prevent us from seeing with satisfaction the end of the war."

The News at Hong Kong. Hong Kong, Aug. 14.—News of the cessation of hostilities between the United States and Spain was received here yesterday.

A FUNERAL HYMN. Is What London Daily Mail Likes Spanish Press Comments to.

London, Aug. 15.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Mail says: "The comments of the press on the protocol are a veritable funeral hymn on the destruction of the Spanish Colonial Empire."

Orders to Cease Fighting. Headquarters of Gen. Wilson at Commo, Aug. 13.—The orders to advance given to the companies to advance were countermanded and the firing soon ceased.

BRITISH COLUMBIA POLITICAL TANGLE. A TALK WITH MISS FRENCH

The Young Woman Who Testified in the Napanee Bank Robbery Case is Now in Toronto—Detectives Hunting for Jack Roach.

The Napanee robbery case is not yet dead, though resting for a time. The country is being scoured by detectives in search of Jack Roach, who is expected to be willing to tell a story in line with Pare's.

Jack stands a good chance of escaping arrest, for, after his release by the Toronto police in May last, he went to Port Erie. He may now be an inmate of some American prison under a false name and away out of the line of search.

Mrs. Robert Mackie made on Saturday her third visit to this city to see Miss French. She returned home on Saturday night.

A pretty woman is Miss Margaret French, the witness for the Crown in the Napanee robbery investigation. She was seen by The World last night at her mother's apartments, over Bond's drug store, on Yonge-street.

Having introduced himself, the reporter was greeted with, "Oh, sir, I have nothing more to say! I have been warned by the Crown lawyers not to do any more talking."

"You know," and Miss French wanted advice confident, "if I get telling my story over and over again, I may get it somewhat confused."

"But did you not make a statement before you gave your evidence?" was queried. "Yes, a few days before I ran away to Detroit I made a statement of what I knew personally and had heard from Mrs. Mackie. Detective Dougherty took it down in writing. This statement was fuller than the story I told in the witness box," replied Miss French.

"What did Mrs. Mackie tell you?" "That would be telling, but I can't say anything about it, except that she said Mr. Ponton came to her house in the middle of the night, and that she had never seen Mr. Ponton in my cousin's house, and of my own personal knowledge know nothing of his complicity in the case. But I did see Jack Roach, and I have heard Mrs. Mackie mention Holden's name."

"I suppose I might tell you," continued Miss French, "that Mrs. Robert Mackie, my cousin's wife, was up here yesterday to see me. Detective Dougherty was with me at the time, but Lizzy—that's Bob's French—stayed till he left. She asked me if I was going to take the stand when the trial came off in the fall. I told her I thought I would have to. She seems to think that I should not have given my evidence, but I told her that I had spoken the truth, without fear or favor, and with no desire to injure her or her husband. I wrote to her at Belleville before the trial came on and told them that I knew many things about what I said. They might have sent me out of the country. If I had gone into this matter for the purpose of making money I could have gone to the Dominion Bank and claimed the reward it returns for my story. I do regret that I didn't tell Bob what I knew when he was up just before the Hamilton races this spring."

As the reporter rose to go, Miss French remarked: "Be sure to state that Mrs. Robert told me to tell only what was true, not 'what was safe,' as one paper had it."

Mr. Semlin Called On to Form a Cabinet—"Fighting Joe" Martin Offered a Portfolio, Which He Declined—Conservatives Claim a Majority of Four—New Complications.

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 13.—Mr. Semlin has accepted the task of forming an administration and expresses confidence that he will have no difficulty. He has put himself in communication with the leading members of the Opposition.

Martin Declines It. Victoria, Aug. 13.—Joseph Martin has been offered the Attorney-Generalship in Semlin's Cabinet and refused. People say Semlin should have refused to undertake the task of forming a Ministry until the question of the leadership of party was settled at a caucus of the elected members of the Opposition.

Local Legislature. It is considered the only salvation for the province, doing away, as it would, with the bitter sectionalism now existing as a curse to the province.

New Phase Every 24 Hours. Every 24 hours a new phase of the unique political situation in British Columbia presents itself. Mr. Semlin says he is content of forming a Cabinet and satisfying the people and Parliament. His sympathies are two independents, Henderson or Westminister and Clifford of Cassiar, will follow him, as well as Irving of Cassiar, heretofore Government supporters. They say he will have a majority sufficient to pass a measure to rearrange the distribution of seats fairer than now, enabling him to go to the country and sweep everything before him.

Fighting Joe is There. But there is the Martin faction to contend against. Followers of "Fighting Joe" say that Mr. Semlin is guilty of a breach of trust, that at a meeting of the Opposition members it was agreed that no leader would be decided upon till a subsequent meeting this month. Mr. Semlin agreed with the Conservatives Claim Majority. Declare that the Standing is 21 Government and 17 Opposition. Vancouver, Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Conservatives elected in the provincial election claim to have a majority of 4, or 21 to 17. Popular feeling is now for Federal politics in the Condition of His Holiness No Longer Admits of Disguise—Bampolla Doing All Vatican Business. Berlin, Aug. 14.—The Rome correspondent of The Cologne Gazette says: "The condition of the Pope no longer admits of disguise. His health has gradually gone from bad to worse, and His Holiness is now a decrepit old man. His voice is of the weakest; thinking dries and prayers confuse him. He has been observed to commence the same prayer ten times without noticing the repetition. Cardinal Rampolla, Papal Secretary of State, conducts all Vatican business."

Produced a Commotion. Rome, Aug. 14.—The Pope's extreme weakness has produced a great commotion, excitement and intrigues among the members of the Sacred College. It is reported that France, Germany and Austria, as being chiefly concerned in the accession to the papacy, have ordered their representatives not to leave Rome. Dr. Laponni, the Pope's physician, thinks there is no danger if the Pope is able to pull through the not weather. All the members of the family of the Pope have hurried to Rome.

His Holiness on Friday insisted upon getting up, but soon had to be carried to bed again in a state of partial collapse; he does not suffer from any specific affection, but only from debility.

GILBERT PARKER'S BANQUET. Developed the Fact that the Preferential Trade Idea Has Lost Ground in England. New York, Aug. 14.—The London cable advises to The New York Tribune says: Gilbert Parker has given this week a well-dinner for six Canadian officials, including the Postmaster-General, Secretary of Agriculture, Minister of Railways, Commander of the Canadian Forces, and Assistant High Commissioner. It was a dinner commencing at 7 o'clock, and the Earl of Donoughue, Earl of Punga, Lord Loch, Sir Francis Jeans and other prominent guests. Representative Canadians are hospitably received in England, but they are doubtful that they have a smaller chance of obtaining preferential trade from the Imperial Government than they had last year, when the country was pulsating with public loyalty. Canada, in placing England on a preferential basis, expected that the British Government would arrange some system of tariff preference in the interests of the Dominion. Canadian officials have found England more interested this year in promoting good feeling with America than in working out the principle of preferential trade. Mr. Chamberlain himself has become the real leader of the Anglo-American alliance movement. They speak most kindly of America, and are confident that all ill-feelings now outstanding between Canada and the United States will speedily be adjusted by diplomatic means.

ELEVEN LIVES LOST. An American Captain, His Wife and Two Children Among Those Drowned. London, Aug. 14.—Advices from Melbourne report that the American barque C. WILL JOHN BULL TURN TAIL? Or Will He Go in and Beat Russia at the Game of Bribery?

English Press and People Growing Frenzied at the Attitude of Lord Salisbury in Regard to China—Russia, Germany and France Pulling Together.

New York, Aug. 14.—Harold Frederic, in his London cable letter to The Times, says: "It is recognized everywhere now that England and Russia are being drawn more and more swiftly toward an impasse, where either one of the two must retreat or a great conflict will ensue."

"I imagine what gall and wormwood it must be to a proud Englishman to encounter the universal opinion from the press of the four quarters of the globe that he will be the one to turn tail when the ultimate crisis arrives. Literally, no one can imagine what a saddened disgust weighs down like platinum on British spirits."

Russian Money Flying Freely. Continuing, he charges that both the Emperor and Li Hung Chang are taking Russian money with both hands to the knowledge of everybody, and of course, each under layer in the worm-eaten mass of Pekin officialdom is absorbing as much of the same alluring metal as it can.

English bold themselves to be as exceptionally moral people, but matters have drifted to such a dangerous, not to say desperate, pass, that they are secretly willing to lay aside some of their phylacteries and go in and beat the Russian at his own game. There is, when it is considered impartially, something grotesque in the man with a hundred millions being outdone in a contest of bribery by the man with one million, and Parliament separates with a kind of faint impression that during the coming six months recess this defect is going to be remedied. It will probably be done by a juggle of Indian finance, where, owing to the constant necessity of diverting sums for the bribery of troublesome Rajahs, and their favorites, a very elastic system of bookkeeping and public audit prevails."

Again, Mr. Frederic says in the course of his despatch: "Few Englishmen doubt that these coming five years will witness the great struggle between the Indian frontier with the czar's borders. The entire military service regard the outcome of such a struggle with serene, almost joyous, confidence, but they chafe bitterly at being forced to wait till Russia's railway expansion in mid-Asia shall provide her with the maximum of facilities for conducting such an invasion. St. Petersburg papers, which are regarded as the mouthpiece of Count Muraviev, are proclaiming that if the war of Pe-Chi-Li, but in the deliries of the Gulf of Pe-Chi-Li, but in the deliries of the Hindu Kush. The English could afford to smile at this. It was were to be fought within the coming 12 months, Russia would have an extremely small voice indeed in the selection of the fields of combat. Such portions of her fleet as ventured to sea would be destroyed, her ports blockaded and her merchant marine wiped out. Port Arthur and Vladivostok would become British, and if a Russian army corps struggled up to the crowning passes of the great Himalayan range, it would be only to feed the vultures and kites there. Two or three years still be able to do the trick, but it would be a good deal more difficult."

Treating the same question, the London representative of The Tribune says: "Parliament has closed with debates on England's China policy, which have caused dismay among the Government followers, and with the appointment of a viceroy for India, which has filled the forward school with delight. By a singular coincidence the same issue of The Times which contained the report of Mr. Balfour's speech, with half-splitting polemics on spheres of influence and the "open door" principle, recorded Mr. Pavloff's success in retreating the New Chang Railway loan, in spite of Lord Salisbury's offer to guarantee China against the consequences of carrying out the contract. There is much discussion among the Conservatives in Parliament over the failures of British diplomacy in China, and old-fashioned Tory journals like The Standard are outspoken in warning the Government that clear, vigorous, resolute action is needed in order to avert lasting damage to British prestige and interests, and ruin to the Unionist party. The English people are, in fact, weary unto death of empty phrasemaking. They cry aloud for stirring action."

Russia, Germany and France, "M. Pavloff, in the last instance, has torn up one English railway contract, and Mr. Balfour does not know what will happen in the case of another railway concession, which lies within the British sphere of influence. Russia, Germany and France are virtually co-operating against England, and small fry states, like Belgium, are taking part in the diplomatic campaign against her. Meanwhile Lord Salisbury has gone to the Continent. Mr. Balfour is pining for golf, and Parliament has broken up for the long vacation."

SUNDAY CARS AT CORNWALL. An Excursion Party From Montreal Spent the Day in the Factory Town and Used Trolley Cars.

Cornwall, Ont., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—Cornwall to-day had its greatest experience with Sunday street cars. A party of Catholic Foresters, some 400 in all, came up via the G. T. R. to spend the day at St. Lawrence Park, to which beautiful resort they were transferred from the G. T. R. station by the electric street railway. They spent the day very pleasantly at the Park and, as a whole, the best behaved lot of people who have visited Cornwall for some time. The local Lord's Day Alliance have been a very busy body since they first heard of the excursion. They warned the G. T. R. and electric railway that they would be proceeded against, and they first heard of the excursion. They warned the G. T. R. and electric railway that they would be proceeded against, and they first heard of the excursion.

With the intention of prosecuting them, a public meeting was held in Knox Church to-day, at which resolutions were passed condemning the desecration of the Sabbath and recommending the local Alliance to prosecute the offenders. The interesting developments are expected, as the railways evidently feel sure of their ground, and the feeling in Cornwall is very strongly in favor of Sunday cars. If a bylaw to that effect were submitted to ratepayers it would doubtless be passed.

The Sweeping Hat Sale at Dineen's. Another week like the last will clear out another thousand straw hats at Dineen's. The extraordinary hat sale at this great store, since the first of the month, has been a clearance of noted English and American makers' surplus products—all hats made for this season's wear, bought direct from the makers in lots of thousands, for spot cash, by the Anglo-American hat syndicate, of which "Dineen's" is the only Canadian member. And the prices at which these hats are being offered are less than the jobbers, from whom most Toronto hat stores buy their supplies, have to pay. The varieties are greater than jobbers have to show, and the styles and qualities are just what you would expect at Dineen's, Toronto's famous hat store, 140 Yonge-street, cor. Temperance.

Some of the buildings burned were packing houses, and their destruction will throw about 500 people out of work.
