Some speculation was indulged in as to whether the embargo was likely to extend to the other ports in the United States south of Boston, and the consensus of opinion in this connection was that there was little likelihood of such a pextension. Should such a consensus of a consensus of opinion in this connection was that there was little likelihood of such a consensus of opinion in this connection. was that there was little insention of such an extension. Should such a condition of affairs come to pass it would mean practically the tying up of the whole of the cattle export trade of that country, which would mean a serious loss to a great many people, even the it were for only a short period. The trade in Canada would not be interfered with to such an extent as many might suppose, for at this season of the year comparatively few cattle were shipped for export. Trade was generally at a low ebb when navigation closed in Montreal, the owners generally holding over what cattle they had at that time to feed for the spring trade. He supposed not one-quarter of the cattle were being moved to-day that there were in the month of June.

PLATE GLASS KILN BURNED.

Rome, Dec. 2.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day the Foreign Minister, Signor Prinetti, announced that Italy was opening negotiations with the United States, with the view of securing compensation for the relatives of Italian emigrants who have been killed while employed in America, and that he hoped to get an equitable interpretation of clause three of the existing treaty.

The bending kiln rooms of the Toronto Plate Glass Importing Company, at 209-213 Victoria-street, were badly damaged by fire between 7 and 8 o'clock on Tuesday night. The fire originated from an overheated kiln, and lasted half an hour. The building, The Italian government, the Minister or Italian government or Hamilton, Dec. 2.—There was quite an audienceat Association Hall to-night to hear N.W. Rowell, K.C., speak on the Liquor Act. J. J. Greene was chairman of the meeting, and seated on the platform with him were: Rev. John Young, president of the Referendum Committee; Rev. Dr. Wilson, George Sweet, Rev. M. R. McWilliams, Rev. J. H. Hazlewood and others. Mr. Greene characterized the list of names published in the papers against the act as an attempt of the liquor dealers to have the support of a respectable element of the support of a respectable element of the community. In this respect, he said, "a bank messenger's opinion should be as much respected as a bank manager's." He did not see the names of a doctor, editor, the Mayor or police magistrate, or many other promiuent men's names on the list.

Local Cattle Men Buoyant.

A spirit of buoyancy exists among local cattle dealers, in view of the prospects for the present blockade in the trade being loosened up in the course of a couple of weeks. They seem to feel that within that time sufficient shipping space will be at their disposal to meet the demands of the near future, and that the supply in this regard will continue adaquate for the consignments of the winter months. As a result of the present stringency of boat space, business was at a stand-
