One of the loveliest of post-nuptial receptions was that held yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Ross Johnston, formerly Miss Florence Burdon, at her home on Waterloo street. The bride, who was the guest of honor, was dressed in a beautiful gown of black and white, and was accompanied by her husband, who was dressed in a tuxedo. The reception was held in the living-room, where the bride and groom were seated at a table with a white tablecloth. The room was decorated with flowers and streamers, and the atmosphere was festive. The bride and groom were the center of attention, and many guests came to congratulate them. The reception lasted until late in the evening, and the bride and groom were the last to leave.

Here, Mrs. Victor Blackwell and Mrs. Clifford Gray presided over the tea, the tea-table handsomely centered with a chrysanthemum and white flowers. WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB HEARS TRAVEL TALK BY TREASURER

Mrs. A. T. Edwards Shows Views of Sir Walter Scott's Country.

Mrs. A. T. Edwards gave a most interesting illustrated account of her trip through England and Scotland before the Women's Canadian Club yesterday afternoon in the Talbot Street Baptist Church. The talk itself was delightful, the speaker giving the hearers a detailed and storied account of the famous old castles and cities of the old land, dealing most particularly with the Lady of the Lake County and Shakespeare's birthplace. The pictures shown were magnificently colored and gave a splendid idea of the country.

Mrs. Frank Leonard, the president, was in the chair, and previous to the illustrated talk reports of the club's work to date were read, thus giving the standing of the club at the present time. Mrs. Harry Coleman, the club secretary, referred to the splendid speakers who had addressed the club during the autumn and winter. The treasurer's report read by Mrs. A. T. Edwards showed the financial standing of the club to be not so good as might be expected. Four hundred and seventy-nine dollars had been taken in fees since the spring, and $265.77 expended, $113.60 of this amount going for speakers' expenses. At the present time there was $233 in the bank.

Speakers in prospect are Bliss Currie, early in February; General Arthur Currie, Mr. Sandwell of the "Bookman," Montreal, and Jean Blawie, Mrs. F. P. Betts has been appointed one of the club's vice-presidents on the resignation of Mrs. T. H. Carling. Another vice-president welcomed back to the club is Mrs. William Sanders. From 4 until 4:30 yesterday afternoon, tea was served and a social time spent.

WHYTE-TAYLOR.
A very pretty wedding took place recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDonald of Kintyre, when Mrs. MacDonald's sister, Miss Ethel Taylor, was united in marriage to Mr. Donald Whyte of Ripley, the Rev. J. S. Hardie officiating. The bride, charmingly dressed in a gown of black and white, was accompanied by her husband, who was dressed in a tuxedo. The wedding was held in the living-room, where the bride and groom were seated at a table with a white tablecloth. The room was decorated with flowers and streamers, and the atmosphere was festive. The bride and groom were the center of attention, and many guests came to congratulate them. The wedding lasted until late in the evening, and the bride and groom were the last to leave.

THE MARRIAGE OF ANNE

OVIII.—A Mistake.

"You haven't got a bathing-cap," said my companion suddenly, when we were half way back to the hotel. "Now, isn't that a pity?"

"She hasn't got a bathing-cap," said my companion suddenly, when we were half way back to the hotel. "Now, isn't that a pity?"

"Oh, forget—I can lend you one. I'm afraid it isn't very smart—just a waterproof cap that I sometimes wear when I'm having a Turkish bath—but you're welcome to it."

"There was nothing for it but to accept her offer. As we walked along the boardwalk we encountered one or two of Margery's beaux. "I'm sorry you men who doffed their caps to her. But I didn't notice any particular enthusiasm in the matter of stopping to speak to her."

"Once Margery halted, and presented me to a chinkish young who was obviously suffering from adenitis. Margery addressed him intimately as Reggie, and asked him to tea at the hotel that afternoon."

"Or maybe you could take me out to lunch," she asked, eagerly. Reggie, however, apparently lacked either the inclination or the cash. "No doubt, Reggie," said my companion. "Internally sorry, but I've got to lunch with mother. She's coming down at twelve today. He-laced patient."

"What about tea, then?" She was still waiting for an answer. "I was still waiting for an answer. "I was still waiting for an answer. "I was still waiting for an answer."
