Matching Belts.

Belts this summer invariably partake Belts this summer invariably partake of the color of the costume, or rather of its trimmings, and crushed ribbons, particularly those with a thin tinsel stripe, are used largely. Sometimes they end in a sash. The two-inch width with a stripe running across makes a good band belt, tho a heavier embossed belting also comes in various colors.

and begin at the side back with three buttons, and stop short of the front; the intervening spaces being filled in either by a jacket effect or some oreither by a jacket effect or some or-namental device. This style recom-mends itself to stout persons, as the full girth is not visible at once. Some-times the belt is made so neatly of the material as not to break the lines

A Modish Over-Waist.

No. 8261. Ladies' Walst. Cut in sizes 32 to 42 inches bust measure. Size 36 will require 2 3-4 yards of 27-inch material. This modish over-blouse is quite simple and extremely becoming. It is designed to slip on over the head, but if preferred, an opening could be made under the centre boxpleat. Deep tucks at the shoulders give a graceful amount of fulness in front, the back is plain, except for slight gathers at the waistline, which are adjusted by a belt of the material stitched to position in the centre of the back, and tied in front. Taffeta, pongee, foulard, broadcloth and volle are all suitable for reproduction.

A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps. Be Sure and State Size as is well-known, never overlook an eportunity of securing the best attractions available. For this week they have obtained the famous European acrobats known as Les Theodorowicz. This marvelous company arrived in New York on Thursday last direct from Faris, France, where they have been the sensation at the Grand Circus for a long time. Their act, while conceded to be one of the most graceful of aerial performances, is also noted for being one of the most difficult, and, while it is not a thriller which makes people turn away their heads, it is nevertheturn away their heads, it is neverthe-less one of the most dangerous exhibi-tions given by aerial artists. Their stay in Toronto is limited to the one week, as they go direct from here to the White City, Chicago, for an extend-ed engagement. This will be their only appearance in Canada. Another feature in the gymnastic line, and one which has not been seen in Toronto before, will be The Bottomley Troupe, who have just concluded a two seasons' enhave just concluded a two seasons' engagement at Luna Park, Coney Island, where their sensational fights thru space made millions of spectators marve: at their daring and seemingly impossible feats.
