W. S. BOND ESQ.
Loridown, Ont., March 12th, 1909.
"For some years I have been greatly troubled with headache and indigestion, brought on by stomach disorder, constipation and biliousness. I was selling remedies with only indifferent success, until 'Fruit-a-lives' came to my notice.
Being a general stockholder, I was selling a good many 'Fruit-a-lives' to my customers and, remaining how pleased they were with the results obtained from using 'Fruit-a-lives', I decided to try them and, I might say, the effects were almost magical. Headaches and biliousness disappeared and today I recommend 'Fruita-lives' to my customers as 'An ideal remedy.'
I might also add that about three years ago I was laid up with LUMBAGO AND SCIATICA—couldn't get out of bed or lift one foot over the other. A good treatment of 'Fruit-a-lives' cured me of these pains and banished the Sciatica and Lumbago so that today I am as well as ever and can lift anything necessary."

INSANE; HE WROTE A PRIZE ESSAY

An interesting fact in connection with the awarding of the prizes offered by Dr.
Thomas Darlington, health commissioner of New York City, for the best essay on "How Can Clean and Wholesome Milk be Produced at the Least Cost to the New York market?" is that the winner of the second prize is a patient in the Middletown State Hospital for the Insane, and has been confined in that institution for several years.
The prize was a $200 full bred Jersey cow, and the winner is Ray Spence, a young farmer, who was committed to the institution from Fulton, N. Y.
Although he has been in the hospital for several years, he prepared his prize winning paper in the state hospital and dayrooms all over the country have thought that the writer was an experienced dayman.

HOW TO DO IT

A "Man Doctor" who is a real doctor that women do everything rather less perfect than men. They don't cook so well, they don't make dresses quite so well, they don't do the housework as well as men, and, in fact, a fact which has astonished the medical men is that on this point, even men hate quite so well as a man who sets himself to millinery.
If you have a feeling that your wife doesn't cook so excellently as she ought, just you take home a bottle of H. P.
Sauce tonight. Suggest to her, in the mildest possible manner, that you like H.
P. with cold meats, that its good with eggs and bacon, and that it is a great flavoring to insipid gravies, ragouts or made-up dishes. In this, as in most other domestic matters, a grain of help is worth a bushel of fault-finding. But you should be quite sure that it is H. P. Sauce that you take home with you.

CONQUEROR OF ROCKIES

Out in Colorado there is a man known as The Conqueror of the Rockies. He is the man who, by his iron will, made the iron horse climb over the backbone of the continent, a feat which has astonished the greatest engineers in all parts of the world.
Master engineering minds declared the building of a railroad across the perpetual snow covered Continental Divide most impractical, even if there possible, but the old Empire Builder's dream was this "impossible" railroad, and he has accomplished the impossible.
The new railroad, which is proving to be the greatest factor in the development of Colorado, he required seven years to build 124 miles of track, and it has cost $12,000,000, which makes it the most expensively constructed railway in the country.
This marvelous engineering feat is called the Moffat road, because it was built by David H. Moffat, who came to Colorado a poor book peddler, but who now counts his money by the millions.

SECRET SKIN SORES

Have you on some part of your body a sore, or eruption, or ulcer, or eczema patch, which hides from sight, yet causes you hours and hours of pain and inconvenience? Many persons suffer agonies in secret from such sores! Perhaps you have tried this and that and the other remedy, but all in vain, and are feeling disheartened and discouraged? If so, try ZAM-BUK, the great hermal healer!
Zam-Buk is strongly antiseptic—more so than crude carbolic acid; yet it causes no pain. On the contrary, it soothes pain, reduces inflammation, and heals. No matter how obstinate the sore, Zam-Buk in the end will be found to cure. Many cases support this. For eczema, ulcers, eruptions, pustules, blennorrhoea, and piles it is without equal. Also heals cold sores, cracks, chapped hands, cuts, barbed wire scratches, etc. All druggists and stores at 50c. a box, or post free in plain wrapper from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price.

An exponent of this paper was presented on Christmas with a gold-headed umbrella.
This is mentioned not in the spirit of boasting, but just to let the folks know they see it, that he did not come by it suddenly.

ST. THOMAS' SCHOOL

Editor Times:
Sir—In order that the light may shine with greater strength, let me point to the fact that it is unlawful for the school board to refuse to admit a child to the school. The school board is not a body of trustees, but a body of citizens. We do not deny the right of any citizen to build, but the right belongs to all citizens. It is not a privilege, but a
